WHITEWASH .- Whitewash is just one of the finest things in the world to promote health and cleanliness. Your old buildings, the roofs and walls of which may not be worth the application of a coat of paint, and which are so unsightly that you are justly ashamed of them in their present condition, may be made to appear almost like new work by a coat of lime. A couple of coats will be sufficient for the blackest wall Fences around the house should be carefully washed or painted, also the interior of all outbuildings, barns, henhouses, granaries, sheep and hog-cotes, and the walls of the cellar, as well as the overhead cell-and cinnamon. Uloves and allepice may be al-ded, but they darken the color of the cabbage .---

Heat the viregar scalding hot, add a little alum, and turn it while hot on the cabbage, the salt remaining. It is necessary to turn the vinegar from the cabbage several times, and scalding it, return it again while hot. This makes them tender. Par-
