

Vol. 11, No. 52. Published weekly for the Proprietor by J. S. K. B. Pottsville, Pa. Price 10 Cents per Copy.

Removal. The office of the Miners' Journal, and Book Store, Variety and Fancy Store, has been removed to the new brick building, two doors above the former stand in Centre St.

A PROTECTIVE TARIFF. The true and only policy of the Country, which gives labor its reward and stimulates industry.

NOW AND FOREVER!! We issue our paper one day earlier than usual, in order to allow our hands to enjoy a merry Christmas.

MISS MRS. KITCHEN AND COUNTESS'S ENTERTAINMENT at the Town Hall, to-night, will be highly interesting and interesting. Those who attend will doubtless enjoy a rich treat.

CLOSE OF THE VOLUME. With the present number, the 22d Volume of the Miners' Journal is complete. We have labored for 18 years to produce a paper of interest and value to our readers, and we trust that during the past year we have spared no effort to make the paper a welcome visitor to the fire-side, a faithful advocate of Schuylkill county interests, a full chronicle of the news of the day, and an unwearied proponent of the tariff of 1846.

ST. NICHOLAS'S VISIT TO ALL GOOD LITTLE BOYS AND GIRLS. 'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house, Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse. The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would come there.

MINERS' ASYLUM. About four or five years ago we first suggested the propriety and expediency of erecting in Schuylkill county an Asylum for disabled miners and laborers, who, having received serious injuries while engaged in their daily employment, might be incapacitated from earning a livelihood by their labor, and also for widows and orphans.

The manner in which we suggested that a fund for the endowment of the Asylum should be raised was as follows, viz: that the Reading, Pottsville and Schuylkill Navigation Companies, should each tax, in addition to the regular rate of toll a tax, of one cent per ton upon all the coal that passed over their respective works.

An EMBROIDERED STATEMENT.—We see in the Democratic Press of Thursday last, a letter from an officer in the Washington Artillery, stating that John Robins, a private in that company, had deserted at Philadelphia, and calling particular attention to the fact, because the printers of Pottsville had presented a revolver to him previous to his departure.

THE WEATHER.—SLEIGHING.—THE MARKETS.—We have had genuine wintry weather during the last week—clear, cold, and bracing. The snow which fell a week ago has been well beaten down, and has made excellent sleighing.

CONVOY OF THE VOLUNTEERS.—It is to be hoped that government will make little better arrangements for the comfort of the new regiment of volunteers from this county, than were made for the 1st Regiment. As the various companies were rendezvoused at Pottsville, the canal being closed, they will be obliged to undergo a long march over the Alleghany Mountains, before they can reach the city.

CONGRESSIONAL. THURSDAY, DEC. 17th.—IN THE SENATE.—Mr. Ashley moved that so much of the President's message as relates to privateering be referred to the Judiciary Committee.

SEVERAL BILLS were presented, among others was one giving the assent of Congress to certain States imposing a tax on public lands as soon as sold. The Senate then went into Executive Session.

IN THE HOUSE.—Mr. Winthrop offered a resolution, calling on the Secretary of War to furnish a statement of the expenditures for harbors, roads, and fortifications in the several States and territories.

ST. NICHOLAS'S VISIT TO ALL GOOD LITTLE BOYS AND GIRLS. 'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house, Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE WAR.—Mr. Secretary of War, in his report to Congress, states that the military operations of the late war were successful in every respect.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

BOOKS FOR THE HOLIDAYS. Every year appears to add to the number of American Annuals, and to increase their attractiveness. Certain it is that we do not remember ever to have seen so many more numerous or elegant, than those that are issued this season.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE WAR.—Mr. Secretary of War, in his report to Congress, states that the military operations of the late war were successful in every respect.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

OFFICERS OF THE 1st PENNSYLVANIA REGIMENT.—The election for field officers of the 1st Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, took place at Pottsville on Friday last, and the result was as follows: P. M. Wynkoop, of Pottsville, was elected Colonel; Samuel F. Black, of Pottsville, Lieutenant Colonel; and F. L. Rowan, of Wilkesbarre, Major.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE WAR.—Mr. Secretary of War, in his report to Congress, states that the military operations of the late war were successful in every respect.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

THE WASHINGTON ARTILLERY.—We learn from a letter to John C. Lessig, Esq., of this county, that an election for a Second Second Lieutenant of the Washington Artillery, took place at Pottsville on Friday last.

THE AMERICAN REVIEW.—We have received the December number, completing the fourth semi-annual volume of the American Review. During the two years of its publication, it has been conducted with great ability, and its pages have been filled with contributions by some of the ablest authors and statesmen of the country.

All sorts of Items.

GLASSES.—Do you suppose that a man can see better by the aid of glasses? I saw a man in company.

INDIAN VEGTABLE PILLS.—The Philadelphia North American states the issue of certain newspapers of that city to be as follows: Public Ledger, 30,000 weekly; Daily City, 15,000 weekly; Saturday Courier, 60,000 nearly; Neal's Weekly Gazette, 15,000 weekly.

A DESEASED DANSEL CONVOYED.—Justice seems to have been done in the case of a young girl, who had been seduced and married to a man who was a scoundrel, but by whom administered could not be ascertained.

A GOOD IDEA.—A case is now pending in Mississippi, in which an attempt is to be made to enforce the law of that state which requires that a man shall pay the debts of each individual whom he kills in a duel.

A PATENT VENDOR.—One of those Rogues, who are seen every where, is now in the mountains of Schuylkill county, where he will receive orders for the same. B. BANNAN, Pottsville, Oct. 24, 1846.

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.—THE dedication of the St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, which is to be held on the first of Nov. in consequence of inclement weather, will take place, by Divine permission, on Christmas morning, the 25th of Dec. at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hall.

DEATHS.—In the death of Mr. Hoffa, her husband has lost an amiable companion, her children an affectionate mother, and her friends a highly esteemed associate.

OUR MARKET.—Corrected carefullly for the Journal. Wheat Flour, per bush, $5.00. Potatoes new, per bush, 1.50. Butter, per lb., 15c.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.—Preparations for the meeting of Congress—Mexican Threats—Reports of Discontents—Unpopular Dictatorial Power for Santa Anna.

THE NEW ORLEANS PICTURES OF THE 10th INST.—The papers from the city of Mexico to the 17th of November, a fortnight later than any other advices Active preparations were making for the meeting of Congress.

LATER.—Movements of Gen. Taylor and Santa Anna—Sixty American baggage wagons captured—Hard fighting expected.

DECREAS OF CRIMELIN ROM.—It is worthy of remark, that since the accession of Pius IX. in June, the number of crimes committed against the person and property of the Pope, in the district of Rome, has diminished in the most extraordinary ratio.

THE CHOLERA IS RAGING TERRIBLY IN ASIA.—The cholera is raging terribly in Asia. The statistics of the number of deaths in the large city of Peking, during the past season, are as follows: 14,000 in 17,000; Kormanshan, 9,000; Tzibahan, 7,000; Resch, 3,000; Amadan, 3,700; Mehed, 2,000; Shiraz, 750.

ANOTHER PAPER IN POTTSVILLE.—We learn that E. L. Jackson, Esq., late editor of the Enquirer, is about to start a new radical, lococo paper, in about to start a new radical, lococo paper, in about to start a new radical, lococo paper.

LITHOGRAPHIC PRINTS.—A LARGE assortment, beautifully colored, including all the latest, for sale by the hundred, dozen, or single at publisher's price. Also frames for the pictures, which will soon require hard fighting.