CLIMPING DOWN EINTHOURES .- A Dutch man passing along the road between Norwich and on a few days ago, came across a railroad, which after examining for a short time in dubi-ons wonderment, he presed on. Presently, Hans comes to another, and then another, which brought him to a dead halt and a long cogitation. "Um, I sees now vat it ish, tunder and blixen, der be der elamps vot der kreps der cartquakes down mit!" Having solved the mystery, he passed on.

A Good Jonn is related by one of the Cincinnati papers, of a gentleman in that city. He had promised his wife a find fat turkey for dinner on Thanksgiving day, and they were awaiting its arrival, when hearing a knock, the gentleman has-tened to the door, picked up a blacket and returned to his wife, soying 'Here, my dear, is the turkey." The lady took the basket and raise 1 the covering, when to her astonished eyes, appeared an interbad only breath to say, "Dear ! if you call that a fine fat turkey, you can cook it you don't like such things. turkey, you can cook it yoursell.".
