They, forsooth, claim to be the especial binct and placed himself with them at the head of friends of America, while we are put down as the friends of Mexico! It seems to matter not that they cannot refer to a single Whig organ, or a single Whig orator, who has said one single word n favor of Mexico. All we have done is to fight for our country, but, at the same time, to acknowledge the existence of such things as truth and iction. Any man who dares to state the simple truth; to acknowledge the existence on earth of such a thing as justice; to state plain historical facts ; denounced as Anti-Americans; as if fraud and falsehood were the only virtues (?) indigenious to American soil! - Since the controversy has been raised, about giving "aid and comfort" to the Mexicans, we may as well have our say. Post OFFICE PRINTING. The Post Office law requires that the list of letters should be published in the paper having the largest circulation in the county where the Post Office is located. As our circulation is equal to the united circulation of any two English papers published in the county, we are entitled to the publication of the list of letters, according to law, and give notice in time, so that the new Post Master, when appointed, can govern himself accordingly. Aflidavits of our circulation, together with our subscription book will be ready. Post Masters in the neighboring towns are also, by their oaths, required to conform to the law in this respect.

States, aged 59 years, 10 months, and 8.days. It is with the deepest sorrow that we amounce the death of one so long known and so much beloved. Mr. Nichols had been for many years a resident of this place, and while his talents would always command our respect, yet out esteen and affection were won by the constant exercise of the gentler virtues. those which strengthen the bonds of relationship and filend-ship, throw their charp around the domestic circle, and make the home of the possessor happy. And though his later years were passed awky from his native coun-try, yet he left behind him among those who had been his neighbors and friends, the recollection of the many kind offices the goodless of his heart prompted him to perform, a recollection which new only increases tho grief we feel for his loss.

grief we feel for his loss. The knowledge of the general sympathy felt with them may not efface in any degree that grief from the minds of those more intimately related to him-when knew him best and loved him most, yet when a goo man departs, we feel it our duty to express the respect we feel for a spotless character and blameless life.
