Pottsville, Jan.,9, 1817 There's the doctor, too, bless the old fellow, For his health went a travelling to France, And came home to be cured of consumption, And lays it to Horehound and Hance. New Refectory. J. E. CARTER, respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken the large and commodious basement under Mr. George II Stitch-ter's new Hardware Store, and has fitted it up as a REFECTORY. He will be happy at all times to see his friends, and hopes to focable to furnish them with all seasonable deficacies, at the as OYSTERS, TKIPE, CLAMS, POULTRY, GAME, PIG'S FEET. New Refectory. Mrs. Martin, your father's first cousin, Lay two or three days in a trance: And the first thing she said upon waking, Was "send for some Hoarhound to Hance." Tyesterday sent for the doctor, Who said "I can see at a glance, There's but one thing can cure your disorder, And that is some lloarhound from Hance." PIG'S FEET, BEEF STEAK, &c. GAME. VENIŜON, So you see dearest Tom, my condition, If you would ny enjoyments enhance, Do not fail to forward to morrow, In the best possible style. By Cirict attention to busi-ness he believes that he can give general satisfaction to those who favor him with their custom-N. B. His bar will be forglished with the best of Beer. Ale, Porter, Cider, and all sorts of Temperance beverages. January 9, 1847. 2-A bottle of Syrup from Hance. Do not truet it by William nor Peter, Por fear of some uely mischance; For what shall ido, dearest Thomas, If I get not the Hoarhound from Hance. Proposals for Iron Work, One bottle for me, and another Don't forget to direct to your aunts ; They sell it at Sands'; I reckon, Be sure 'tis the gennine Hance. Mrs. Brown was bent double with coughing, But now she's as straight as a lance; And the change has been wrought, she arsures me, By taking the Hoarhound from Hance. As I went to the store but last Friday, Mr. Batterman eyed me askance, And whispering, said, "Mrs. Davis, You must send for some Hoarbound to Hance." Mrs. Pitts, who subscribes io the Mirror, In that Journal encountered by chance, Very locky, the first advertisement, Had been sent in our village from Hance. 1 remain, my dear, Thomas, as ever, Your mother, in Love's fond durance, And if you would keep me here, darling, Pray send me the Noarhound from Hance Construction of the reaction of the field of the second se Τļ
