

POTTSVILLE. Saturday Morning, April 10, 1847.

VOLNEY B. PALMER, At the Post Office and Coal Agency, Corner of Third & Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, No. 16, State Street, Boston, and South east corner of Baltimore & Calvert Streets, Baltimore, is our agent for receiving subscriptions and advertisements for the Miners' Journal.

FOR GOVERNOR. GEN. JAMES IRVIN, OF CENTRE COUNTY. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. JOSEPH W. PATTON, OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

To Our Subscribers.

As the new Post Office law permits papers to be sent out of the mail on mail routes, we are engaged in making arrangements to send the Journal on the different routes free of postage. In the County of Schuylkill wherever it can be done with safety to insure a prompt delivery of which due notice will be given.

We have procured from Harrisburg a copy of the Removal Bill, as it passed the Legislature and will lay it before our readers next week.

We acknowledge the receipt of $3, from "T. M. P." for the relief of Ireland, and have paid it over to Mr. Shippen, Treasurer.

DELINQUENT TO ROB AND MURDER. Yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, while Lawrence Brennan, a driver, of Port Carbon, was driving some cows between New Castle and Coal Castle, on the public road within a mile of Robert Adams' Colliery, a tall, slim man with a red shirt, who spoke English, stepped up to him and demanded his money.

Another Great Battle in New Mexico. Brilliant Victory—Overwhelming Defeat of Two Thousand Mexicans!

The Louisville Courier, of the 2d inst., contains the following letter from St. Louis, which states that Capt. Morris' command in the valley of the Mora, had met the Mexican insurgents, and defeated them with great loss—they fled to the Mountains. The loss on the American side was very small. The massacre of Gen. Bent and 25 other Americans is confirmed.

An officer of the Army who was near Gen. Taylor's camp during the battle denigrates that he made use of the profane expressions attributed to him by some of the correspondents, during its progress. He was cool and collected throughout the whole contest and his expressions and intercourse with the officers under his command, were characteristic of the gentleman and the soldier.

The Indiana Regiment gave way at one time, but they rallied again under Gen. Wool, and retired their credit—the slaughter among them was very great. It is stated that after the battle the administration of public justice alike to all, require us to do so.

CHAOS IN BUSINESS.—Messrs Porter & Sells, have taken William Major's old stand, where they will continue the Flour & Feed Business.

Mr. Hozer, has commenced the Tin and Stove Business on a large scale on his own account, at the corner of Norwegian and Rail Road streets.

Mr. Steen has left partner has commenced the same business in his own account two doors above the Town Hall.

SECRETARY WALKER AND THE TARIFF OF 1846.—Old readers will recollect that Secretary Walker, and all the Free Traders declared that the Tariff of 1846, would produce more revenue, than that of 1842. The result so far, does not bear Mr. Walker out in his assertion, and shows that his calculations are not to be relied on. The Revenue from Customs at the Port of Boston, for the first quarter in 1846, amounted to $1,068,833, showing a decrease in 1847, over the corresponding quarter under the Tariff of 1842, of $351,183.02.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Locofoco papers were in ecstasies because they saved New Hampshire, at the last election. To show how near they came losing the State, the Boston Atlas says that four votes more had been polled for the whig ticket in Portsmouth, which could easily have been done, it would have secured a whig majority in the Legislature, and also a whig Governor.

SHADE TREES.—Examine your Shade Trees carefully before the leaves put forth, and if you find any dead leaves adhering to the limbs, remove them, together with the twig, if you can.—Under these leaves are the deposits from which the worms proceed, and by using this precaution, the trees will not suffer from the worms, and the foliage can be preserved during the season.

We have ordered from Philadelphia, 50 European Linden Trees, which will be sold at cost, (fifty cents each) on condition that they are planted in the public streets of our Borough, or neighboring towns. Orders for trees in the meantime, can be left at our office.

WHAT'S THE MATTER!—The New York Express in speaking of the difficulty in raising the ten regiments under the new bill, says—"Not a member of the Empire Club has enlisted." [Not a war orator of the Park, or of Vauxhall Garden! It is the hardest possible work to fill up the New York Regiment, where "democrats" are as thick as blackberries.

The sympathies of the whole country are with the sage of Andover—his loss was severe at the Battle of Buena Vista. Besides the fall of his favorite son, Col. Henry Clay Jr. he has to mourn the loss of Col. Hardin of Illinois, who was his nephew, and, one of the most prominent young men in Illinois. He was the only Whig member of Congress from that State, but declined a re-election to take the field, in the present war with Mexico. They both fell at the head of their regiments. When Col. Clay was severely wounded an attempt was made to carry him off to a place of safety—but finding it difficult to ascend a small hill, he requested the men to raise him and save themselves—he laid on his back and saw, brandishing his sword while the Mexican Lance men were giving his body. Col. Hazden also fought to the last—while lying on the ground disabled, he drew a pistol and shot one of the enemy, before he was despatched. It is stated that the Mexicans pierced all the wounded Americans, who fell in their hands.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.—The latest accounts state that Gen. Taylor had left Monterey with 15000 Troops in search of Gen. Urrea, who; it was stated, was on this side of the mountains with 60000 troops. A correspondent of the Eticayano says that he was within 12 or 15 miles of the Mexicans, and if he overtake them, peace be to their ashes. He whipped Santa Anna on the other side of the mountains, and now he has come to clear up all this bottom land.

VERA CRUZ. We have nothing later than published last week, except the account of some skirmishing with the enemy while investing the city, in which a few of our men were wounded, and a number of the enemy killed.

It is stated that several of the citizens of Vera Cruz, who favored a capitulation were shot. It is also understood that Gen. Scott will not accept any proposition for capitulation which does not include the Castle.

The Washington Union of Monday night, 5th inst., contains despatches from Gen. Scott, dated 13th ult., complaining that he is interrupted in his operations for the want of the baggage waggons, provisions, ammunition, and supplies, which should have been there two weeks before. The want of these supplies is seriously felt.

Our army were busy engaged in planting their guns, and preparing for the siege. Shells were thrown from the Castle a distance of 23 miles.

It is now surmised that our fleet will be nothing to do with the bombardment of the castle, that the vessels are too small, and armaments too light to be brought into competition with that solid mass of masonry. It will be a sorry disappointment to the officers and men of the navy, to be denied the privilege of sharing in the glory of the reduction of this famous stronghold.

Should the Mexicans hold out any length of time without capitulating, it is feared the carnage will be very great.

Great anxiety is manifested in this quarter for the fate of the Schuylkill county boys,—and it is therefore to be hoped, that no idle rumors will be foolishly circulated, calculated to bring anguish and suffering to the hearts of their families and friends. Such conduct is cruel in the extreme.

GEN. IRVIN—TEA AND COFFEE.—THE TARIFF OF 1842.—As was of the Locofoco papers continue to assert that Gen. Irvin, the Democratic Whig candidate for Governor, voted for laying a duty on Tea and Coffee, when in Congress, the Hon. George N. Briggs, addressed a letter to the Hon. Gen. Irvin, of Philadelphia, the Hon. Joseph W. Patton, of Philadelphia, who served in Congress with Gen. Irvin at the period alluded to, propounding several queries with regard to the course of Gen. Irvin; the answer to which, with the consent of the writer, has been handed to you for publication. This letter fully contradicts the charge, and those who reiterate it hereafter, do so with a knowledge that they are uttering a base slander against an honest citizen and a pure patriot.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27, 1847. Your favor of 24th March is received. If Gen. Irvin stood in no other relation to the country than that of a private man who had formerly taken part in its councils and served its faithful agents, he would be entitled to a fair and impartial report to your enquiries respecting him. Having witnessed his course of public conduct at a critical and interesting moment, it has given me pleasure on many occasions to bear testimony to his merit. It is not, therefore, for a place which he occupies in the discharge of his high duties, of no ordinary character. He is therefore entitled to a cheerful expression of opinion, as well as a prompt statement of facts, concerning him.

You will not fail to recollect the condition of the country in the summer of 1842. A disastrous course of policy had, especially during the administration of Mr. Van Buren, involved the finances of the country in a most embarrassing and ruinous condition. The Government was in a state of bankruptcy, and the public mind was in a state of confusion. It was in this emergency that Gen. Irvin was called upon to assume the duties of the office of Secretary of the Treasury. He was then a private citizen, and his only claim to the office was his personal character and his public services. He was appointed to the office on the 1st of July, and he immediately set to work to reform the system. He was successful in his efforts, and he was able to bring the country out of its financial straits. He was reappointed to the office on the 1st of July, 1843, and he continued to serve the country with the same energy and ability. He was again reappointed to the office on the 1st of July, 1844, and he continued to serve the country with the same energy and ability. He was again reappointed to the office on the 1st of July, 1845, and he continued to serve the country with the same energy and ability. He was again reappointed to the office on the 1st of July, 1846, and he continued to serve the country with the same energy and ability.
