When the belle of fifteen gets of a beau, the scarcely can peen through the sticks of her far r heart all a flutter, her cheeks all a glow, the tremplingly simpers out: "Who is the man?" Sweet twenty has brought her to years of discretion;
She blusties no longer, but afters her plan;
She thighs of the pocket, the place, the profession,
And hous round the circle with: "What is the man? At thirty each day that she looks in the mirror,

Stickness that some leaf of the rose has grown wan; Seekthetictle of lovers grow thin, and in terror, She huns the deceivers with: "Which is the man?"

At forty she changes her tune, grows romantic, Finds it pretty to sigh, plays the harp and looks wan Haunts watering places, and stems the Atlantic, For the point of her travel is, "Where is the man?"

The landlord made his bow and exit; but the next morning summoned his guest before the mayor for this act of petty treason, and the fine was in consequence exacted and paid; when the traveller turning round in open court, thus addressed him:

"I have travelled through the greater part of England, Scotland, and Ireland; and except the identical animal that chews the thistle, I have never met with so egrezious an ass as you are, landford," and then, turning with an air of prof and reverence to the ber ch, he added, the mayor excepted."

Wetherill & Brother,

ANUFACTURERS, No. 65, North-Front street.

Aphiladelphia, have now a good supply of their warranted pure White LEAD, and those customers who have been sparingly supplied in consequence of a run on the article, shall now have their orders filled.

No known substance possesses those preservative and beautifying properties, so desirable in a paint, to an equal extent with unadulterated white load; hence an admixture of other materists only mara its value. It has, therefore, been the steady aim of the manufacturers, for many years, to supply to the public a perfectly pure white lead; and the unceasing demand for the article, is proof that it has met with favor. It is invariably branded on one head WETHERILL & BROTHER in full, and on the other, warranted place, alliin red letters.

IPPINCOTT & TAYLOR respectfully invite the attention of their customers and the public in general, to their extensive stock of Spring and Summer goods, just opened, which consist of French, English, and American style Mitled Cloth and Cassimere, which for beauty and style cannot be surpassed by any other establishment in the State. The Vestings, we believe, are something very rich and handsome; the fancy Scarfs, Handkerchiefs, Shirts, Suspenders, Glores, &c, were selected, and cannot be sold cheaper by any other establishment in the United States.

L. & T. flatter themselves they do give to their customers better satisfaction in the way of good work, firmer goods, and more fashionably cut coats than the majority of tailors in the cities of Philadelphia, New York, or Baltimore.

L. & T. having taken the medal at the two last exhibitions of the Franklin Institute, is a strong guarantee that they cannot be surpassed in their profession.

HAAS' EXPECTORANT, FOR THE CURE OF Consumption, Coughs, Colds, &c.

IN PRESENTING this valuable medicine to the public as a remedy for Consumption, and Pulinonary Diseases in general, I have been actuated solely by the great success attending its use in my own immediate neighborhood, and a desire to benefit the afflicted, I shall simple sales. neighborhood, and a desire to benefit the afflicted, I shall simply endeavor to give a brief statement of its asofulness, and finter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most increduous, that CONSUMP-PION may and "CAN BE CURED," if this medicine is resorted to in time. As Consumption, however is a disease which differs much in the severity of its sympoms, and the rapidity of its progress, and has long baffed the skill of physicians it cannot be supposed that this or any other remedy is capable of effecting a cure in every case and in every stage of the disease; on the contrary, we must expect it to fail sometimes, a lircumstance which occurs daily, with all the most valuable remedies we possess, for the most simple diseases. The proprietor submits the following testimonials in its favor from citizens of this County, well known to the public. Mr. W. J. HAAS, Having been afflicted for the last in its favor from citizens of this County, well known to the public.

Mr. W. J. Haas,—Having been afflicted for the last thirty years with Consumption, and having had the advice of some of the most eminent Physicians, and was given up as incurable. I was induced to make trial of your invaluable Expectorant, and am happy to say that I am entirely cured, and am attending to my daily occupation as though I had never been afflicted. Prevous to itaking your EXPECTORANT, I could not, if I had been so disposed, do anything at my trade. I have since recommended it to several of my friends, and particularly one case of Conviewed Consumption, and am happy to state that in every instance it had the desired effect. Yours respectfully JOSHUA HAWEN. Schuylkill Haven, October I, 1844.

Schuylkill Haven, October I, 1844.

Schuylkill Haven, Dear Sir.—Having been afflicted with a severe pain in the breast, I was induced to try your Expectorant, and after using one bottle of it, found it to relieve me, and I do not hesitate in recommending it to the public as a valuable medicine for Colds, Coughs and Afflictions of the Breast.

I am respectfully yours &c..

EDWARD HUNTZINGER.

Schuylkill Haven, October 19, 1844.

I was taken with a bad cold zome time ago, and used one or two bottles of Mr Haas? Expectorant, which relieved me much, and should I have occasion for the above again, I would freely call on Mr. Haas for his invinuable Expectorant.

ANDREW RUSSEL.

Pottsvill , June 19, 1841, STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY,

CALLED HUNT'S LINIMENT I S now universally acknowledged to be the infallible remedy for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Co I remedy for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contraction of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Issues, Old Ulcers, Pains in the Back and Chest. Ague in the Breast and Face, Tooth Ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Croup, Frested Feet; and all Nervous Diseases.

The triumphant success which has attended the application of this most WONDERFUL MEDICINE in Christ the most sweet cases of the different diseases.

The triumphant success which has attended the oppication of this most WONDERFUL MEDICINE in curing the most severe cases of the different diseases above named, and the HIGH ENCOMIUMS that have been bestowed upon it wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the afflicted to resort at once to the only remedy that can be relied on.

A year has scarcely elapsed since I first introduced to the notice of the public, this WONDERFUL REMEDY, and in that short space of time, it has acquired a reputation that ranks it amongst medicines as a great Externial Remedy the first and best. It has neceived the approbation of the Nedical Faculty and many chizzens of influence and wealth have united and recommending it to the Public's use, as a medicine that can be asfely resorted to for speedy relief. The high characteralready attained by this popular Medicine, has induced some base and evil minded persons to palm of a counterfeir as the genuine; and no doubt the country will be flooded with a spurious Hunt's Liniment. Be careful and examine well before you bny, and see you get STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY CALLED HUNT'S LINIMENT.

See that each bottle has my nane blown upon it, and that it is accompanied with directions, and with a fac simile of my signature on the second page; otherwise you will be cheated with an article that will injure instead of benefitting you.

The low price at which it is sold enables every oneven the poorest to be benefitted by this excellent remedy. It is unfortunately the case that the working classes, from exposure, are more subject than the idle and rich, to those very infirmities which it is intended to cure, yet the exorbitant price usually asked for remedies of the like nature (one dollar per bottle,) robs the needy of their use.

dies of the like nature (one dollar per bottle,) robs the needy of their use.

Thousands are now suffering the most intense agony, arising from malmed limbs, distortions of the frame, inveterate rheumatism: many of them, perhaps, have already given up in despair all attempts to obtain relief, after repeated and unsuccessful trials—but let its such feelings of despair be entertained—try HUNT'S LINI.

MENT, it has done wonders, as may be seen by reading the several cases reported in the pamphlets which are to be had of-every Agent. Try it and despair not. But should you in carelessness, or incredulity neglect to seek for relief in its proper application, either for yourself or your friends, then let the hlame be upon yoursel forly, for Providence has now placed within your each a safe and certain remedy, which has already afforded relief to thousands, and whose healing properties are incontestible.

SONG OF THE SOIL By J. H. R. Bayley. I start the bulb of the beautiful flower, And feed the bloom of the wild wood bowe I rear the blade of the tender herb. And the trunk of the stallwart oak 1 curb; I force the sap of the mointain pine, And curb the tendrils of the vine; And cure the tendrils of the vine;
I ribe the forest, and clothe the plain
With the ripest of fruits and the richest of grain. The cheek of the peasant I clothe with health,
And yield the sturdy yeoman wealth;
I give the spirit of commerce wings,
And prop the tottering throne of kings—
The gorgeous palace and the humble col
Owe every atom to me they've got—
And the prince at the banquet, and the hind at his

Alike must depend on the fare I afford. Man may boast of his creaturely mightnan may boast of his creaturely might—
His talents in peace, and prowers in right,
And lord it over the beast and bird,
But the charm of his touch, and the spell of hisword;
But I am the sole and-mighty source
Whence flows the tide of his boasted force—
Whatever his right and, whoever he bi,
His pomp and dominion must come from me!

I am the giver of all that's good, And have been since the world has stood.
Where's there wealth on occan, or beauty on land,
But sprung from the warmth of my fostering hand?
Or where the object fair and free,
That claims a being, but's traced to me?
The wonderful might of the fruitful soil!

And whence, says the Christian, dost thou obtain.
This power so mighty, of which thou art vain?
Thou boastest of that, which is furnished to thee,
By Him who is Lord, both of land and of sea.
For know that the treasures which come from thy sod, Are only thine own as the gift of thy God.

Farmers' Department.

John S. Skinner, Esq., has a prescriptive title to the regards and to the honors of all agricultural associations. He was the father of them in this country, and has been their zcalous and steadfast promoter. He appeared on this occasion merely as a visiter, though now a citizen of the state. Mr. Skinner was acquainted with verything else that constituted the exhibition.-Mr. Skinner has done more to promote a taste for agriculture, horticulture, and the improvement of stock, than any man in the country. He started the first agricultural paper in this country, fiveand-twenty or thirty years ago, and now conducts the most useful one—the "Farmer's Library." It is not generally known, but it is somewhat remarkable, that Mr. Skinner imported and made known the Peruvian guano twenty-five years ago. He distributed it in small parcels, to agriculturists, for experiments, with directions for its use, copied from the Humboldt and other Spanish writers; the article attracted no uttention in this country until the British agriculturists had learned to appreciate it, and had carried off whole islands of it.

By the way, we need very much from some of these societies a report from a committee of competent persons upon the application of guano, as tested by a series of well managed experiments, extending through a number of years. Governor Hill, of New Hampshire, assures me that he has used it for two years past with great success, in the culture of corn and potatoes. He considera it a very valuable manure in Northern climates where the Summers are short; and the effects of

The correspondent of the Union, in the kindness of his regards for Mr. Skinner, might have added, as to the Alpaca and all the other sheep neculiar to Peru about the recent introduction of which into England, so much has been said, and for the importation of which a company has been formed in this State-that as far back as twentysix years ago. Mr. Skinner caused them all to be engraved and published, beside their portraits, full Memoirs of their Natural History and qualities as adapted to the United States. More than wenty years ago he imported the first improved Short-horned Cattle into Maryland, merely to let the public see what they were; and for the late General Van Renssalaer, whose friendship and correspondence he enjoyed to the day of his death. he imported three cattle of the same breed into this State, which cost $1,000 in Liverpool.

. Mr. S. was more than twenty years ago, at the instance of Gov. Clinton, elected along with the late Judge Buel, a corresponding member of the great London Horticultural Society, when, it is lieved, these three gentlemen persons who enjoyed that distinction in this country. More than twenty years ago he was in cor-respondence with the late great Norfolk Farmer, Mr. Cooke, Earl of Leicester, and with Sir John' Sinclair, from whom he received, with his autograph marginal notes, a cony of his celebrated "Code of Agriculture." It was to Mr. S. that Sir John first imparted for publication his agricul-tural capabilities of the several States of the Union. All these things appeared in the pages of the American Farmér—commenced without a single subscriber in April, 1819—more than twentyeight years ago—so that if honorary membership, resolutions of thanks, and presentations of plate and other testimonials, from Agricultural Societies in every State where they have been formed. can give claim to admission on Cattle show-grounds, our friend, the Editor of the Farmers Library, would appear to have the run of them all. We happen to know that he has lately had invitations to attend and to address such associations, from Washington county, Pennsylvania, to Boston in Massachusetts-well directed then was the kind notice of the correspondent of the Union. Lo Moral Suasion .- When a friend of ours rhom we shall call Agricola, was a boy, he lived on a farm in Berkshire county, the owner of which vas much troubled by his dog, Wolf. The cut killed his sheep, knowing, perhaps, that he was conscientiously opposed to capital punishment, and he could device no other means to prevent it. "I can break him of it," said Agricola, "if you, will give me leave."

"Thou art permitted," said the honest farmer-And now we will let Agricola tell the story in his own words; premising, however, that a ram cannot be a good marksman: "There was a ram on the farm," says Agricola, as notorious for butting as Wolf was for sheep stealing, and who stood in as much need of moral sussion as the dog. I shut Wolf up in the barn with this old fellow, and another of almost equally pugnacious reputation, and the consequence was, that the dog never looked a sheep in the face again-They broke every bone in his body literally. "Wonderfully uplifted was the ram aforesaid," by his exploit; his insolence grew intolerable; he was sure to pitch into whomsoever went nigh him-'I'll fix him,' said I, and so I did. I rigged an iron crow bar out of a hole in the barn, point foremost, and hung an old hat on the end of it. You can't always tell, when you see a hat, whether there's a head in it of not; then, how should a ram? Aries made at it full butt, and being a good marksman from long practice, the bar broke in between his horns and came out quider his body.

This little admonition effectually cured him of hatting." Large Corn-fields. - We have frequently heard of the large corn-fields in the West, but the following description of one copied from an exchange paper, goes shead of all: -- We have conversed with a gentleman lately returned from the western States, who informed us that he saw one field of corn in the State of Ohio which contained fifteen thousand acres of land! It had never been hoed, and yet it was calculated that the crops would average 35 bushels to the acro. The gentleman rode fifteen miles by the side of it

Weight of Grain, &c.—The following table, exhibiting the number of pounds to the bushel, of the different articles enumerated, may he of service to many.
Wheat 60; Beans 60; Potatoes 40; Corn 56; Buckwheat Seed 52; Barley 48;—Castor Oil Beans 56; Hemp Seed 44; Timothy Seed 55; Oats 24; Bran 20; Blue Grass Seed 14; Psa-ches (dried) 24; Apples (dried) 22; every skeptic upon the subject of raising 100 bushels of corn to the acre, would carefully measure the ground and count the ears upon some garden patches of corn Juring the present summer, as they can be convinced how easy it is to raise 100 bushels of corn to the acre, up a land with the soil of garden-mould and a similar cultivation. INDIA RUBBER DOOR SPRINGS-A good ar-A ticle: price 50 cents, just received and for sale at Oc23 BANNAN'S Variety stores, Pottaville.
