The first week has been devoted exclusively to Sessions and Over and Terminer business. We give a minute of the proceedings up to Thur-day evening 6 o'clock, at which time the grand jury were still engaged, but expected to close their labors on Friday. As their report of course, had not been submitted on Thursday evening, we are unable to say upon how missy bills they have acted, the amount of business before them, however, was unusually large, and comprised offences of almost every grade known to the criminal calender.
