This Peter Gray the real to All with a nice young girl;
The name of her I'm positive
Was Lizianny Querl. When they were going to be wed,

Her father he said "No?"
And brutally did send her off,
Beyond the Ohl-o. When Feter found his love was lost,
He knew not what to say;
He had a half a mind to jump into

The Susquehanni-s. A trading he went to the west, For furs and other skins, And there he was in crimson drest,

By bloody In-ii-ins. When Lizianny heard the news. She straightway went to bed, And never did get off of it Until she d-l-ed!

Ye fathers all u warning take-Bach one as has a girl-And think upon Poor Peter Gray And Lizianny Querl.

DRINKING SONG. By J. E. A. Smith Fill high the bowl with water clear Weask no wine of Cypress rare

We sak no wine of Cypress rare;
If beauty's lip but kiss it round,
No richer draught need sparkle there.
Fill high the bowl, with lilles crowned!
We ask no rose nor tulip fair;
The crystal ware on which they grew
Hath left its stainless beauty there.
Fill high the bowl, the social bowl,
Let heart and lip its purpress share; Let heart and lip its pureness share

THE USED UP POLITICIAN .- The folthe USED UP POLITICIAN.—I he diving sketch of a "Used up Politician" is not inspropriste at this time. It is from the pen of the late Joseph C. Neal: Peter Brush was in a dilapidated condition—out at elbows, out at knees, out at pockets, and out of spirits, and out in the street—an "out and outer" in every respect. He sat upon the cure-stone leaning his head upon his sat upon the curr-stone feating fix uest spous hand, his elbow being placed upon a stepping stone. Mr. Brush had for some time been silent, absorbed in deep thought, which he relieved at intervals by spitting through his teeth, forlornly into the gutter. At length, heaving a deep sigh, he spoke: "They used to tell me—put not your trust in princes—and I haven't. None of 'em ever wanted to borrow nothin' of me, and I never Princes! pooh! put not your trust politicioners!
Them's my sentiments. There's no two mediums about that. Haven't I been serving my country this five years like a patriot; going to meetings and huzzaing my daylights ou, and gettin as blue as blazes! Havenit I blocked windows, got lick-ed fifty times, carried I don't know how many lack eyes and broken noses for the good of the once eyes and broken noses for the good of the Commonwealth and purity of legal rights? and all for what? Why for nix. If any good has come out of it, the country has put the whole of it in her pocket, and swindled me out of my earnings. I can not no still a Panablic in agents. ings. I can get no office. Purges mildly, subduing fever,—destroys and expels worms with invariable success—and is can be administered to children. sind of food. Purges middly, subduing fever,—destroys to and expels worms with invariable success—and is easily administered to children.

That it possesses these valuable properties, is fearlessly asserted—still claiming the additional advantages of being given in small bulk, and requiring none of the drenching which Worm Tea and other supposed Vernicures and accessible Vermiting the subsent tried without the least success, where it has promptly expelled Worms to an almost incredible amount.

As evidence of the surprising effects of Dr. M'Lant's WORM SPECIFIC, we give the following:—

On Saturday, February Thi, 1836, Mr. James Richard son called at the Brug Store of J. Kidd & Co. corner of Wood and Fourth streets, Putsburg, Pa. and made the following statement:—"A child of mine had been try sick for some fein days—we had given her purcative medicines, but it had done her no good Ous of our neighbours 'came in and said it, was Worms that were destroying the child, and at the same time speke of our neighbours 'came in and said it, was Worms that were destroying the child, and at the same time speke of our neighbours' came in and said it, was Worms that were destroying the child, and at the same time speke of our neighbours' came in and said it, was Worms that were destroying the child, and at the same time speke of our neighbours' came in and said it, was Worms that were destroying the child, and at the same time speke of other wonderful-effects she had wittlessed from using Dr. M'Lant's Worms Specific, in that neighborhood. We procured a vial—gave one tea-spoonful, and the child discharged fortig to worms. I then gave another 12a-spoonful, which is quayth forty-six, more, making in all cichtageigh Worms. As a duty I owe to you and the community at large, I freely make known these facts. My child is now well. What Is most remarkable, the Morm Specific expelled the Worms alive, in thout feur hours after Traveit to the child."

The Farmer. To keep Birds from Fruits—The following plan, which I discovered by accidents: I think, perfectly efficacious. One of my see wants having by chance broken a looking gias, a occurred to me that the broken pieces suspending the string, so as to turn freely in every directly would give the appearance of something money about, which would alarm the birds. I across ingly tried the plan, and find that no bird, is even the most fool-hardy of them (a nist of nearly fledged sparrows), dare come near.

They had attacked my peas. On suspending few, hits of the looking glass among them the acrouders left the place. The tomitis stracked in seedle pears (which they seemed very partially a bit of looking-glass suspended in front of the tree put a stop to the mischief. My grapes was next much dismaged before they were tipe, by thrushes and starlings; a piece of looking-time drove these away, and not a grape was touch TO KEEP BIRDS FROM FRUITS The drove these away, and not a grape was touche afterwards. I have before tried many plans be never found any so efficieve as the above.— Co of Gardener's Chronicle. Instinct of Plants.—Hoare, in hy Treatis on the Vine gives a striking erray, fection of the instinct of plants. A bone wa placed in the strong but dry clay of a vine by der. The vine set out a leading or tap real, rectly through the clay to the bone. In its, in sage through the clay the main root three out a fibre, but when it reached the bone it enture covered it, by degrees, with the most deficate so minute fibres, the lace, each one sucking at ment of the bone. It was in reasing a pore in the bone, like a litter of pres mosing a their dame as she lies down on vice sunny side a their dame as she lies down on the same late to the farm yard. On this luceious morel of a me row-bone would the vine continue to feed, as leg as any nutriment remained to be extracted.

What wonderful analogies there are running the method of the rest of th through the various forms of animal and rep-table creation, to stimulate curically, to grand research, and, finally, to lead our contemplates from nature, in a feeling of reverence, "up a nature's God!"

THE PRESS—Its Influence on Agniculiural Improvements—Mr. Payson, in his a dress before the Essex county (Mass.)
