LATER FROM MEXICO. By the latest arrivals from Mexico, it appears ession at Queretaro, having under consideration the Treaty, which, it was generally thought, would be ratified by them. This opinion, however, does not appear to be well grounded; for even if the Congress now in Session should sanction the Treaty, and solemaise it in due form, the government will in all likelihood be again overturned, and new officers placed at the head of it. A embraces a large portion of the Mexican populace, headed by Almonte, Bustomente, Parades, and others of great influence. Our government will soon learn, if it has not already learned to its cost and sorrow, what desperate rascals they have to treat with in the Mexisan Republic. We do not believe that a treaty can ever be ratified which will secure us from the bere, cut-throats, and superstitious demi-devils, whom it were disgraceful to be caught fighting with, inasmuch as they are scarcely worthy of powder and lead. But our valiant Government supposed them easy prey for their unhallowed ambition, and so we had to fight. The good effects of this course are now daily becoming visible .-Millions of dollars expended, and thousands of lives lost by sword, disease and accident. It is said that the vomito has broken out a Tampico, and was causing many deaths. Lieut. Breman, of the 4th infantry, who had participated in all the battles, died at the above place, of yelhome. The yellow faver was prevalent at Vera Cruz, at the last accounts, and in some instances its effects were fatal.

ARRIVAL OF GEN. SCOTT. This distinguished Chieftain reached his Elizabethtown, New-Jersey, on Sunday morning last, in excellent health and spirits. He arrived there early on that morning, and attended church, in the midst of his family and neighbors.

On his way home, the Genéral refused the invitations extended him to visit New Orleans and other cities, alleging as a reason the displeasure of the Executive, under which he was resting. Since his arrival home, however, he has ascertained the fact that the President has waived all further proceedings on the charges of Gen. Worth, and that,

It may now be confidently expected that the hearted Whige who will be gathered there from all quarters of the Union may at least see the man who conquered all Mexico, and who is destined to lead them to still more glorious victories, State! without the use of powder and balls, and the sacrifice of life and limb!

THE Subscribers, proprietors of one of the oldest and most extensive China Storet in the United States, have now on hand a very large supply of Common Ware, Grasile Ware, China Farkand Glass Ware, embracing all the varieties ever imported, which they will rue in large or small quantities, Wastessies or Retail, to susthie wants of people, at prices to dety competition.

The advantages to be derived from having a large stock to select from. onght certainly to be apparent to every one; only two need be mentioned:

1st. The varety to please the tasts:

2d. The advantage of purchasing at the lowest prices; for it is certainly evident to every thinking mind that side larger the bariness done, the smaller the profit required. It is so in every burneth of trade. The manufacturer sells to the wholesale package dealer; the wholesale package dealer sells to the jobber, and the jobber to the retail bountry dealer: so that the farmer or consumer of the article pays at last four profits!

Why pay so many profits when you can some directy to head quarters?
