vernment—with no demand abroad for our bread-stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigrating This expression was distorted amongst the workmen that M. Marc had called them slaves, and says she lays awake half the night thinking of them garillas, for foar they've and it seems to have been the sign for the coingift thinking of them garillas, for foar they've apriles or a spirators, who had organized a vast movement, to spirators, who had organized a vast movement, to commence their operations.

On Thursday night, the 22d of June, the first dead or alive, and set your aunt Keziah's heart to rest.

But all wont pacify her; she's as uneasy as a new stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigrating stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigrating parties of stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigrating stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigrating results for stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigrating stuffs—with our ports filled with the emigr paralyzed in the midst of a teeming harvest—our honest and high minded merchants ruined by the h honest and high-minded merchants ruined by the villainies of foreign agents—(who deem ingenious frauds on the custom houses of all rival manufacturing nations perfectly innocent, if necessary to their success)—ruin and repudiation must again stalk through our land. Shall we, then, tamely submit to witness these inevitable consequences of the iniquitous policy of Polk, Dullas, and Walker! The remedy is in our own hands. Popular calmity and popular prosperity are alike ordained in America by the popular pleasure. If the people of the United States choose, they can at sonce escape all these thickening evils of free trade. If they will it, they can in a moment change—

I feel myself in duty bound to testify to the great cure which your Compound Syrup of Wild cherry performed on me. For my part, I feel as if every body ought to which your Compound Syrup of Wild &herry performed on me. Formy part, I feel as if every body ought to know it. I was afflicted with a violent cough, splitting of Blood, Night Sweats, and Horseners, and around of the voice indicating an alarming state of disease; my appetite was gone, and my strength had so far failed me that my friends and physiclans were persuaded I could not survive many days. My sister, who was my anxious care-taker, made inquiry where she would be likely to procure the most certain relief. She was told that if Dr. Swayon's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry failed in the cure, my life was then hoppiegs. Your medicine was immediately procured, and the first bottle, my cough had left me and my strength was much inbody.
