CANAL COMPRISSIONEB.

The Locofocos are beginning to move in the matter of nominating a person for Canal Commissioner. At a meeting of the Locofocos, held at Suphary, for the purpose of expressing themselves as to the person of their choice, E. Y. Bright was reimmended as the first choice of Northumberland County, and Col. A. C. Byer, as the second.

We hardly think it worth while for the Locofocos to nominate a man. Their party was so bardly besten at the fate election, that it will be a difficult matter to rally their forces, and the Whigs will walk once more over the copres with ease.

Ithe Commonwealth were opened and read on the loude of Representatives, in the presence of the members of both Houses, as required by Isa. The suggeste vote is as follows:

HORACE GREELEY.

Another scene, disreputable to Congress and the Republic, has been enacted in the House of ives. Mr. Greeley's "mileage teform," was at the bottom of the affair. Mr. Greeley has commenced a reform, which, if accomplished, must result in a wast amount of saving to the country But the people have seen how his efforts in behalf of a reform of the milesge system have been apif the mileage law. Such is the law which Mr. Greeley is endeavoring to reform. The success with which, so far, he has met, is known to our readers.

The people are becoming interested in this matter. They see that extravagance has been Pennsylvania Delegation, to Gen. Taylor, as a practiced. The efforts of Mr. Greeley are being appreciated by the people, and no matter how Mr. Stewart is well known, not only to the peo Few of the members are aware of the sensation which Mr. Greelev's action has produced in this State, and from what we see in other papers, we be represented in the Cabinet, and if the Secretaare led to infer that the people everywhere are be-coming interested.
