TAYLOR AND CASS.

The Washington correspondent of the Pennsylvanian, of the 1st inst, gives the following, which is said to have taken place between these two distinguished citizens:

Gen. Cass, in company with Mr. Senator Fitz-gerald, paid a visit to Gen. Taylor this morning. Several gentlemen were present when the interview took place. The President elect received his late Democratic competitor very cordially. "Well, General," said Gen. Cass, "you have distanced me in the race!" "But, General," very happi-"Well. ne in the race!" BEAD THIS EXTRAORDIANY CASE.

Dt. SWANNE—Ber Sir:—Having contracted a severe cold, which seciled upon my lungs, attended with a violent cough, pain in my side and breast, difficulty of breathing, I was attended by physicians of the first expectability, but my symptoms became very alarming, there was an abscess formed in my lungs and made its way through my side, and discharged large quantities of puss externally, so that my physician intought the power or functions of one of my lungs were totally destroyed—therefore supposed the case califely hopeless. This mourful state of things continued for a long time, until I was wasted and worn to a skeleton. I had tried a number of remetics, but all failed to do any good. But there still being a spark of hope left forme and my anxious parents, and having heard of the great virtues of your Compound of the great virtues of your Compound of the great virtues of your Compound swipp of Wild Cherry, and its being approved of by physicians of the first eminence, I concluded to make trial of it, and to my great satisfaction, my cough gradually grew beiter, the bole in my side began to heal, and ammow happy to say, from a poor and almost hopeless skeleton, I have hereome healthy and weigh more than lever, was a large of the material of it, and to my great satisfaction, my cough gradually grew beiter, the bole in my side began to heal, and ammow happy to say, from a poor and almost hopeless skeleton, I have hereome healthy and weigh more than 1 ever have. IMPORTANT CAUTION—READ: READ!

There is but one genotic preparation of Wild Cherry, and that is Dr. Swayne's, the first ever offered to the public, which has been sold largely throughout the funited States and some parts of Europe; and all preparations called by the name of Wild Cherry, have been put out since this, under cover of some deceptive circumstances, in orderingive currency to their sales. Each bottle of the genuine is enveloped with a beautiful steel engraving, with the likeness of Wm. Penn thereon; also, Dr. Swayne's signature, and as a further security, the portrait of Dr. Swayne will be added hereafter, so as to distinguish his preparations from all others.

THIS REMEDY is one which has proved successful for a long time, and it i quivers by acknowinged by all who have tried it to be far superior (being so very pleasant to the taste at the same time effection) only other medicine ever employed in diseases for which it is recommended. It not only destroys worms, but it invigorates the whole system. It is harmless in its effects, and the health of the patient is always improved by its use even when no worms are discovered. Dr. SWAYNE'S VERMIFUGE has met with a degree of favor from the public, which has perhaps never before been accorded to any medicine. It needs no recommendation where ever it is known.
