Christo "Americans! Remember that your country was born in blood, baptized in gore; cradled in the war hoope, and bred to the rifle and bowie knife. We have fout our way, up. The colonies cut their way out of it, through blood and carnage, and thunder. They tore their blanket wide oping.

Onst or twist it tooked like a mighty slime chance; but they cut and seared and tore and slaughtered away like, blazes. (Cheering) They grappled his wine pipe, and least they made him bellow like wine pipe, and least they made him bellow like bloody thunder. Washington sheathed the sword. The gentle olive branch of peace waved hir green. "Americans! Remember that your country was wine pipe, and least they made him bellow like bloody thunder. Washington sheathed the sword. The gentle olive branch of peace waved by green and luxuriant foliage in majesty over the rhorss of Columbis; and foreigners flocked in and built their nests with us among its sheltered boghs. But a few more years had rolled away down the railread track of time, when John Bull again came bellowing up the Mississippi, pawing up onto his back the rich and luxuriant site of Loustians, and herning the banks of sayed river and Isahing his tail like fury. But just below Orleans he found the great Jackson, and he could'nt shure!. (Great appleuse.) Jackson, and he could'nt shure!. (Great appleuse.) Jackson and he could'nt shure! (Great appleuse.) Jackson and he dwanced errey time. At last he hit him a lick, right back in under between the horns that knocked the breath out of him, and set him off blatting and bellowing like held disagreeable at the stumk.

Soldiers of Winnebago, war, and invincibles of Bank furse! [Here thirteen men arose.] Hereose of Bad Axe! Vetersnas of Stillman's fight! Very nimble men! You have come down to us from a reform of generation. Heaven has bound iffully prolonged out your lives that you neight see the fruit of your valor. You behold around no longer the torch of the sayagh, and the pleaming of the tomahawk and scalping knife. All is now peace and quiet. Mussachuselts Husbandry .- The following is an extract from the report of the Commit-tee of the Middlesex (Mase) Society of Husband-men and Manufacturers. It shows in the case of that by sammer pruning, both roots and tops are equally reduced, and that what may be termed the balance of power between these is still mainimistaned. On the contrary, if you prune only in win'er, the roots are, in consequence, but little-affected, their increase for the season having been applied in the resions.
