Wit and Humor.

☞ Mode of Burying Lawers in olden Times.—A gentleman in the country, who had just buried a rich relation, who was an attorney, was complaining to Foote, who was on a visit to him, of the very great expense of a country funeral.

"Why," says Foote, "do you bury your attorneys here?"

"Yes, to be sure we do: how else?"

"Oh! we never do that in London."

"No?" said the other, much surprised, "how do you manage?"

"Why, when the patient happens to die, we lay him out in a room over night by himself, lock the door, open the sash, and in the morning he's entirely off!"

"Indeed!" said the other in amazement, "what becomes of him?"

Why, that we cannot exactly tell, not being acquainted with the supernatural causes. All we know of the matter is, "there's a strong smell of brimstone in the room the next morning!"

"Sam Jonsing does you s'pose General Taylor whipped the Mexicans by accident?"

"No Pete—by no manner ob means; Old Zachary meant to do it, sartin."

"Den let me ax you what 'markable river he was like, at de time?"

"Oh, I must give him up, and axes you to splain yourself."

"Well, I tells you as you told me, Zacharymeant to." (Sacramento.)

"You berry deep dis mornin." "But talking about California, why am all the emigrants on the way thar like folks gwine to de theatre?"

"You too sharp agin. I gub him up."

"It's cos they gwine to de play ser." (Placer.)

"Yah, yah. Now why am you like the gold they digs up thar?"

"S'pose cos I'se werry valuable."

"Oh, no, dat's not it. Cos you berry scaly."

"Gosh! I doesn't like no such 'rv—innovations:—Good morning, sar." —Vineyard Gazette.

☞ O'Flat——erty and the Bees.—There happened on ——, on a certain occasion, to grow up between Mr. —— and Peter O'Flatherty and a bragging down-easter, a very fierce contest as to the comparative size of different animals and insects in this, and in the "ould country," when Mr. O'Flatherty declared that in Ireland the bass were as big as a shape."

"Very well," interrupted Ichabod, "how big are the hives?"

"As big as yours, by jabbers!"

"Then, how do the bees get into their hives?"

Paddy scratched his head, and after a few moments reflection replied: "Oh! that's their business."

☞ Boarding House Regulations.—In one of the Albany boarding houses, the following regulations are posted up in the hall:

'Boarders are requested, when they retire late, to take off their boots before getting into bed.

'Making faces at the landlady not permitted.

'When a gentleman has eaten sufficiently he should leave the table, and not glutton until he is obliged to unbutton his vest.'

'Whittling in the parlor prohibited' when the ladies are present.

'Any infraction of the above rules will lead to a suspension of coffee on the following morning.'

☞ An African Preacher, speaking from "wat at is a man profited if he gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" mentioned among other things, that they lost their souls by being too charitable! Seeing the congregation astonished beyond measure at this saying, he very emphatically repeated it, and then proceeded to explain his meaning.

"Many people," said he, "attend meeting, hear the sermon, and, when it is over, they proceed to divide it among the congregation—this part was for that man, and that part for that woman; such denominations for such persons, these threats for you sinners—and so," continued the shrewd African, "they give away the whole sermon, and keep none for themselves."

☞ Dr. Wall once, at a dinner table, very unwisely persisted in playing with a cork, in such a manner as displayed a hand long divorced from the savatory. One guest happened to express his surprise to another, and, in too loud a whisper, exclaimed, "Heavens, what a dirty hand!" The doctor overheard, and turning sharply round, said, "Sir, I'll bet you a guinea there is a dirtier one in the company." "Done," returned the first, sure of winning. The guineas were staked, and the doctor showed his other hand. He was judged to have won without a dissenting voice.

☞ "Proposals for carrying the mails," exclaimed Mrs. Partington, in a tone of virtuous indignation, as she happened to glance over an advertisement in one of the papers, "Has it come to this, that us poor unfortunate female critters are to be made beast of burden, are to carry about a pack of good for-nothing male men on our backs?" She threw down the paper, and rose hastily from the chair, and took snuff at a prodigious rate; highly excited at the degrading propo ition.

☞ Destiny is always of more importance than origin. When Philip Henry, the father of the celebrated commentator, sought the hand of the only daughter and heiress of Mr. Mathews in marriage, an objection was made by the father, who admitted all his excellent qualities as a man and a preacher, but they did not know where he came from.

"True," said the daughter, "but I know where he is going, and I should like to go with him!"—and she did.

☞ A Man on horseback stopped opposite a church upon which some repairs were in progress. He told one of the workmen that he thought it would be a very expensive job.

"Yes," replied the other, "in my opition we shall accomplish what our dominion has been trying in vain to do for the last thirty years"

"What is that!" said his interrogator.

"Why, in bringing all the congregation to repentance."

☞ At one of our Hotels, a few days since, Mrs. W—— inquired of a gentleman sitting next to her, the difference between a fine similie and a sick family. After destroying a huge piece of pie, he replied as follows,

"A fine simile, madam, may be a well authenticated fact; while a sick family cannot be regarded as a well one!"

☞ Hereditary Nobility.—"It is not right," said a gentleman, advocating the justice and propriety of a hereditary nobility, "in order to hand down to posterity the virtue of those who have been eminent for their services to the country, that their posterity should enjoy the honors conferred on them as a reward for their services?"

☞ Judge Jeffries, when on the bench, told an old fellow with a long beard, that he supposed he had a conscience as long as his beard.

"Does your Lordship," replied the old man, "measure conscience by beards? If so, your Lordship has none at all."

☞ Noodle having returned from Venice, was asked by Snooks if he had seen the Bridge of Sighs. "No," said Noodle, "and I don't know how I could have seen it, as there is not a bridge of size in Venice. Such as they have there are very small."

☞ A wag purchased a very fine horse. Returning from a ride a few days afterward, he said he had discovered a quality in his animal which added fifty dollars to his value.—"He skied at a constable!"

☞ At the late celebration of St. Patrick's day by the Young Friends of Ireland, this toast was given:—"Woman—She needs no eulogy: she speaks for herself."

☞ Satisfactory Definition.—A little girl asked her sister, "what was chaos, that papa read about?" The elder sister replied, "why it is a great pile of nothing, and no place to put it."

☞ A barrister observed to a learned brother in court a short time since, that the wearing of whiskers was unprofessional. "Right," replied the friend, a lawyer cannot be too barefaced.

☞ Love your Enemies—A clergyman told an Indian he should love his enemies. "I do," said the latter, "for I love rum and cider."

☞ He who has a high forehead, will have his eyes under it, and will live all the days of his life.

PLEASE READ THIS EXTRAORDINARY CURE.

DR. SWAYNE—Dear Sir:—About six years ago, I discovered that my lungs were affected, of which I became more convinced from time to time, although I tried many remedies, yet without any apparent benefit, and my disease increased until I was compelled to keep my room, and at last my bed. I had great pain in my left side, upon which I could not lay in bed, and in the morning my cough was so severe that I found it very difficult to throw up the phlem which gathered in great quantities on my lungs, when fortunately I bought of your agent, in this place, one bottle of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which so much relieved me that I continued using it until now. I have used six bottles, and am happy to tell you that my pains are removed, my strength returned, my flesh is much restored and sweet, and I feel perfectly well. I can now follow my daily avocation without being afflicted with that painful hacking, weakening cough, and I firmly believe that to your medicine, under the blessings of Providence, I am indebted for this great change, and am very happy to subscribe myself,

STILL ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE!
READ THIS EXTRAORDINARY CASE.

DR. SWAYNE—Dear Sir:—Allow me to record a severe cold, which settled upon my lungs, attended with a violent cough, pain in my side and breast, difficulty of breathing, I was attended by physicians of the first respectability in this county, but my symptoms became every hour more alarming, there was an abscess formed in my lungs and made its way through my side, and discharged large quantities of pus externally, at last my physician thought the power or fourtions of one of my lungs were totally destroyed—therefore supposed the case entirely hopeless. This mournful state of things continued for a long time, until I was wasted and worn to a skeleton. I had tried a number of remedies, but all failed to do any good. Reduced and suffering a mark of hope left for me and my anxious parents, and having heard of the great virtues of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, and its being approved of by physicians of the first eminence, I concluded to make trial of it, and to my great satisfaction, my cough gradually grew better, the hole in my side began to heal, and I am now happy to say, from a poor and almost helpless skeleton, I have become healthy and weigh more than fever have. All my neighbors can testify to the above fact.

Dr. H. SWAYNE—Dear Sir:—This is to certify, that during the fall and winter of 1846, I was troubled with a very severe cold and cough, with strong symptoms of the consumption, I was induced to try your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, of which one bottle entirely cured me, and I would strongly recommend it to others for similar affections.

ANOTHER SEVERE CASE OF CONSUMPTION.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27, 1848.

DR. SWAYNE—Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty to give my testimony in favor of your valuable Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which I conceived to [illegible] my wife and daughter of the age. For the last two years I have been afflicted with the asthma. Sleep had become a Stranger to me; night after night would I have to sit up in my bed. I was attended by four or five different physicians, also having used various patent medicines, but all of no avail. I continued to grow worse, until I commenced the use of your valuable compound syrup of Wild Cherry, which afforded me immediate relief. After using several bottles I was restored to perfect health. Yours with respect,

SARAH B. EVANS,
Carpenter, corner of Eighth and Paris sts.

Thousands of persons are destroying their constitution by taking worthless trash to sqlve a cough for a trifle, not upon single catchpenny articles, which relieve for the moment, but eventually accelerate the disease. Resort at once to that old established remedy, Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, so celebrated throughout the whole world as an effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Breast.

IMPORTANT CAUTION—READ! READ!

There is but one genuine preparation of Wild Cherry and that is Dr. Swayne's, the first ever offered to the public which has been sold largely throughout the United States and some parts of Europe; and all preparations called by the name of Wild Cherry, have been put out since this, under cover of some deceptive circumstances, in order to give currency to their sales. Each bottle of the genuine is enveloped with a beautiful steel engraving, with the likeness of Dr. Penn thereon; also Dr. Swayne's signature, and as a further security, the portrait of Dr. Swayne will be hereafter, so as to distinguish his preparations from all others.

Swayne's Celebrated Vermifuge.
"A safe and effectual remedy for Worms, Dyspepsia, Cholera-Morbus, sickly or Dyspeptic children or adults, and the most useful Family Medicine offered to the public."

THIS REMEDY is one which has proved successful for a long time, and it universe gy acknowledged by all who have tried it to be far superior (from its very pleasant to the taste at the same time effectual) to any other medicine ever employed in diseases for which it is recommended. It not only destroys worms, but it invigorates the whole system. Its harmless in its effects, and the health of the patient is always assured by its use even when worms are discovered.

Dr. SWAYNE'S VERMIFUGE has met with a decree of favor from the public, which has perhaps never before been extended to any medicine. It needs no recommendation where ever it is known. To the fond mother, bending in sleepless anxiety over her wasting child, it will carry relief, joy, and thankfulness; to all who are suffering from the diseases for which it is prepared, it offers a speedy restoration to health.—

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.—Swayne's Vermifuge is in square bottles (seeing recently changed to prevent counterfeit), also to back to a better advantage) with the following words blown in the glass: Dr. H. Swayne's Vermifuge, Philada., also enveloped in a beautiful wrapper, bearing the signature of Dr. Swayne, with his portrait on each side of the bottle without which none is genuine. This article is so pleasant to the taste that both children and adults are universally fond of it.

Dr. SWAYNE'S SARSAPARILLA AND EXTRACT TAR PILLS—The great American Purifier—for the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood or habit of the system.

Let it be remembered, that in this preparation are strongly concentrated all the medical properties of Sarsaparilla and Extract of Tar compounded with other valuable "Vegetable Extracts," the whole strength of which is extracted on an entirely new principle. Unlike all other Pills, these neither gripe, produce nausea or any other unpleasant sensation, while they are as powerful as it is possible for a medicine to be, and be harmless. It purifies, cleanses, and strengthens the fountain springs of life; and infuses new vigor throughout the whole human frame.

☞ Remember always to inquire particularly for Dr. SWAYNE'S SARSAPARILLA AND EXTRACT TAR PILLS. See that the Signature of Dr. SWAYNE is on each Box.

Caution Extra.

A man by the name of CLAPP has engaged with a young man of the name of S. P. Townsend, and uses his name to put up a Sarsaparilla, which they call Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, denominating it GENUINE Original, etc. This Townsend is no doctor, and never was; but was formerly a worker on railroads, canals, and the like. Yet he assumes the title of Dr., for the purpose of gaining credit for what he is no. This is to caution the public not to be deceived, and purchase none but the Genuine Original Old Dr. Jacob Townsend's Sarsaparilla, having on it the Old Dr's. likeness, his family coat of arms, and his signature across the coat of arms.

OLD DOCTOR JACOB TOWNSEND,
THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER OF THE Genuine Townsend Sarsaparilla!

OLD Dr. Townsend is now about 70 years of age, and has long been known as the author and discoverer of the Genuine Original "Townsend Sarsaparilla." Being poor, he was compelled to limit its manufacture, by which means it has been kept out of market, and the sales circumscribed to those only who had proved its worth and known its value. It had reached the ears of many, nevertheless, as those persons who had been healed of sore diseases, and saved from death, proclaimed its excellence and wonderful

HEALING POWER.

Knowing, many years ago, that he had, by his skill, science, and experience, devised an article which would be of incalculable advantage to mankind, when once known and extensively used, he hoped and persevered, expecting the time to arrive when the means would be furnished to bring it into universal notice, when its inestimable virtues would be known and appreciated. This time has come, the means are supplied; this GRAND AND UNEQUALLED PREPARATION,

Is manufactured on the largest scale, and is called for throughout the length and breadth of the land, especially as it is found incapable of degeneration or deterioration.

Let every man ring throughout the land, that Old Dr. Jacob Townsend is now manufacturing the real Townsend Sarsaparilla, which never sours, never ferments, and never changes in character.

From this day forth the people shall have the Pure Genuine Townsend Sarsaparilla, which shall never sour in the bottle, or in the stomach, but it will purify and banish from the land all liver vomiting, Souring, Exploding, Vinegary Sarsaparillas, now in use. A good Sarsaparilla, pure and genuine, ought to be; a poor one ought not to exist. Bishop Sarsaparilla ought a drop for a curse, and infinitely dissimilar; that they are unlike in every particular, having not one single thing in common.

As S. P. Townsend is no doctor, and never was, is no chemist, no pharmaceutist—knows no more of medicine or disease than any other person, and is a careless, unprofessional man, what guarantee can the public have that they are receiving a genuine scientific medicine, containing all the virtues of a vegetable, and which are incapable of changes which might render them the agents of disease instead of health?

But when Old Dr. Jacob Townsend, a man who knows nothing comparatively of medicine or disease: it requires a person of some experience, to cook and dish up even a common decent meal, how much more important is it that the persons who manufacture medicine, designed for weak stomachs and enfeebled systems, should know well the medical properties of plants, the best manner of securing and preserving their healing virtues, also an extensive knowledge of the various diseases which affect the human system, and how to adapt remedies to those diseases.

It is horrible to think, and to know how cruelly the afflicted are imposed upon by presumptuous men for the sake of money. Farmers make out to deceive they strike at the root of disease, remove all impure humors from the body upon the pores externally and internally; expel the morbific poisonous matter through the stomach, so that the blood may be thoroughly pure—thus securing a free and healthy action to the heart, lungs, and liver; and thereby truly restore health, even when all other means have failed.

The entire truth of the above can be ascertained by the trial of a single box; and their virtues are so positive that we neither require nor solicit a trial unless he binds himself to return the money paid for them in all cases where they do not give universal satisfaction.

HUGHES' EXPECTORANT,
CELEBRATED
For the Cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis Incipient Consumption, Inflammation of the Lungs, and Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

THIS valuable preparation is highly recommended by physicians and by a celebrated chemist of Philadelphia, for its medical effects and chemical combination, as well as by thousands of others who have made use of it—as it never has been used without producing beneficial effects, and ultimate cure of the diseases for which it is recommended. And being a regular graduate of Pharmacy, I can assure the public of its perfect safety. It is composed of such preparations as stand in the very highest repute among the medical faculty for the cure of that class of diseases which are too often only the forerunners of that fatal disease, consumption. In most cases where there is much pain in the breast, and which often extends through to the shoulder blade, I would strongly advise the application of one of the Compound Gallanum Plasters to the breast, and use the Expectorant as directed. In fact, the use of the Gallanum Plaster cannot be too strongly recommended, as I have seen so many instances of its affording the greatest relief in a very short space of time, even in confirmed consumption. The Expectorant will be found to relieve the cough, and the Plaster the pain; and, at the same time, draw the inflamation to the surface, and thereby act as a counter-irritant, which every physician will pronounce good, without the least hesitation whatever. Persons are also said to have the dire consumption, when by a judicious use of some of the best Expectorants, and a careful diet, they have been completely cured, so that their expectoration would cease, and the wasting of those who are said to have the consumption not to despair, but try on. The Expectorant will be found to afford great relief, even when a cure is said to be impossible.

Before making use of an Expectorant it would be as well to examine the Uvula, commonly termed Palate, to see if it is not swollen or elongated. In such cases an Expectorant is useless.

Hacking cough and a continual disposition to swallow is frequently caused by an elongation of the palate. An excellent remedy in such cases is to use a small quantity of Tincture Myrrh, say about a tea-spoonful to a wine glassful of water, and use as a gargle, three or four time a day. If the above remedy should fail, or one of the same nature, it would be best to apply to a surgeon, an have a small portion of it taken off, so as to obviate th irritation and the continual cough which it would be like ly to produce in the throat. The operation is trifling and attended with but little, if any pain whatever.

In Bronchitis, and diseases of the throat, the garg would be used.

MONTHLY BULLETIN, NO. 40.
THE CONSUMPTION

It is the universal opinion of the most distinguished physicians, both of this country and Europe, that Consumption is Curable, in any and every stage, excepting that which is attended by mortification. The latter symptom frequently marks a breaking up of the powers of life, and then a cure is not to be accomplished by counted on; Tubercles on the lungs are not necessarily fatal to life, but which you cure them. But the means to be employed must be widely different from those ordinarily used. Consumption is the ulceration of the lungs, sometimes commencing in the form of Tubercles. This the Graefenberg

PURIFY THE BLOOD!
DR. KEELER'S PANACEA,

FOR the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood and habit of the body, viz.:

Chronic diseases of the chest, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Catarrh, etc.; Scrofula in all its forms, Tetter, Scald-Head, Cutaneous eruptions of the head, face, body, and extremities, Chronic diseases of the Liver, Stomach, and Bowels, Chronic Rheumatism, Chronic Enlargement of the Joints and Ligaments, White Swellings, Hip Joint affections, Abcesses, Ulcers, Syphilitic disorders, mercurial and hereditary predispositions, etc., etc.

Disease is not an element of our nature. The allwise Creator ordained man a perfect being in all the social relations of life. Happiness is the measured value of his existence, both in relation to himself and all around him. How many fall short of this profession, yet how easy to be obtained. Did we respect health as much as we dread disease when it enters our dresses, our attachments like the sands of the hour glass would not so soon run out. Oh, ye! who are basking in the sunshine, guard well this jewel: ye who have lost the prize, lome not a moment in regaining it. Procrastination is a thief to our happiness; remember that every breeze that faces our cheeks carries an element of disease. In every breath that we draw, in every step that we take, in every particle of food that we eat, or glass we drink, there is danger. "Every bane has its antidote," and when the stream becomes impure at its fountain—when the blood, coursing our veins, becomes tainted with disease, the Panacea is the only sovereign remedy. This must be changed and rendered pure; every atom of the blood live, is not every person of it a living atom, is not bone, nerve, muscle, tendon and sinew, produced from blood. What fills up an ulcer, reproduces that health an strength of a sick man but the blood, under the vito-electrical influences of the brain and nerves. That medicine which restores the atomic and molecular movements of this fluid to a healthy action, will as sure as the sun shines, bring health and strength to the sick. Remember a responsible and medical adviser warns you against procrastination, and points the way to health. Be wise in time, 'tis folly to defer.

DOUBT NO LONGER.

Philadelphia, Jan. 16, '49.

Dr. Keeler—Dear Sir: Some time since I commenced using your Panacea, for a disease of the skin. I had for several months, at times, an intolerable itching of the body and limbs, with a dry scaly scurf forming, which annoyed me very much. My general health was not good, appetite precarious and bowels irregular in their action. On applying to my physician he recommended me to take Sarsaparilla Syrup. By your solicitation I took your Panacea, and am happy to inform you, that after using three bottles the scurfy appearance of the skin as well as the itching have entirely disappeared. My general health is now better than it has been for years, which I attribute solely to your medicine.

I feel confident, that it is a medicine eminently deserving the attention of the afflicted, and one I hope will ere long, meet with general favor from all. I can honestly and truly say, that I believe it the best medicine for all cutaneous affections that I am acquainted with, as I have used many some years since, for a friend of seven years standing, of which you cured me effectually in a less number of weeks.

Wishing you success, I remain,
Yours, respectfully,
T. B. RUSSOM.

SCROFULA CURED.

Dr. Keeler—Dear Sir—I feel it my duty to state to you the good effects of your Panacea has produced on a son of mine, who has been for several years afflicted with what Physicians have termed Scrofula. He has been somewhat hard of hearing for several years, accompanied by a constant discharge from the ears, and a dull heavy pain across the forehead—his general health quite feeble, appetite precarious, and bowels irregular. There were swellings of the neck and at the angles of the jaws, the complexion of an ashy paleness, and all the characteristics of wasting health. At your request, I commenced giving him your Panacea, and I am rejoiced to state that after using three bottles there has been a remarkable change for the better—His appetite is now good, the pain across the forehead entirely gone, the discharge from the ears ceased, and part of the skin is now like one enjoying good health, indeed he now says he feels well, appetite good, sleeps well, and in fact every thing is changed, which I attribute solely to your medicine. I feel fully satisfied from what I have witnessed in my own child, that it is a medicine of unsurpassed power in developing the scrofulous character of the system, and at liberty to make what use of this you may deem proper.

I remain very respectfully yours,
CHAS. FLAGG, George St.

Also, Dr. KEELER'S CORDIAL or CARMINATIVE—for the use of the wheel child or poor, by which value health and all its blessings, should have this invaluable remedy at hand. It is infinitely the best remedy known for diarrhea, dysentery, cholera morbus cholera infantum, flatulency, griping pains, cramp, etc., and for all diseases of the stomach and bowels caused by Teething. The numerous testimonials from Physicians and others must satisfy the most skeptical as firm as adamant. Price 25 cents per bottle.

HAAS' EXPECTORANT,
For the Cure of Consumption, Coughs, Colds &c
TO THE PUBLIC.

IN PRESENTING this valuable medicine to the public, as a remedy for Consumption, and Pulmonary Diseases in general, I have been actuated solely by the great success attending its use in my own immediate neighborhood, and a desire to benefit the afflicted, I shall simply refer to a brief statement of its unexampled usefulness, and flatter myself that its surprising efficacy will enable me to furnish such proofs of its virtues as will satisfy the most incredulous, that CONSUMPTION may and "CAN BE CURED," if this medicine is resorted to in time. As Consumption, however is a disease which differs much in the form of its appearance, and the rapidity of its progress, and has long baffled the skill of physicians it cannot be supposed that this or any other remedy is capable of effecting a cure in every instance, and in every stage of the disease; on the contrary, we must expect it to fail sometimes, a circumstance which occurs daily, with all the most valuable remedies possessed, for the most trifling diseases. The proprietor submits the following testimonials in its favor from citizens of this County, well known to the public.

MR. WM. HAAS,—Having been afflicted for the last thirty years with Consumption, and having had the advice of some of the most eminent Physicians, and was given up to incurable. I was induced to make use of your invaluable Expectorant, and am happy to say that I am entirely cured, and am attending to my daily occupation with perfect ease. I never been afflicted. Recommending to taking your EXPECTORANT, I could not, if I had been so disposed, do anything at my trade. I have since recommended it to several of my friends, and in every instance it effected a perfect cure. I would therefore recommend it to parents who have children afflicted with that dangerous malady.

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, January 1, 1845,

MR. W. J. HAAS,—Dear Sir—Having been afflicted with a bad cold for some time ago, I was induced to use your Expectorant, and after using one bottle of it, found it to relieve me, and I do not hesitate in recommending it to the public as a valuable medicine for Colds, Coughs and Affections of the Throat.

I am respectfully yours &c.,
EDWARD HUNTZINGER.

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, October 19, 1844.

I was taken with a bad cold some time ago, and used one or two bottles of Mr Haas' Expectorant, which relieved me entirely, and I have no hesitation in saying that the above again, I would freely call on Mr. Haas for his invaluable Expectorant.

DANIEL H. STAGER.

SCHUYLKILL HAVEN, July, 29, 1845.

PURE WHITE LEAD.
Wetherill & Brother,

MANUFACTURERS, No 65, North Front street, Philadelphia, have now a good supply of their warranted pure WHITE LEAD, and those customers who have been generally supplied in consequence of a n on the article, shall now have their orders filled.

No known substance possesses these preservative and beautifying properties, so desirable in a paint, for equal extent with unadulterated white lead; hence any admixture of other materials only mars its value. It has, therefore, been the object of the manufacturers, for many years of study, to supply to the public a perfectly pure white lead, and the unceasing demand for the article, is proof that it has met with favor. It is invariably branded on one head: WETHERILL & BROTHER in full, and on the other, warranted pure, all in red letters.

B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.
FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.

THE CONSTANTLY increasing popularity and sale of B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge has induced persons who are envious of its success, to palm off upon the public preparations of which all needed to know to be inefficacious in expelling worms from the system.

This Vermifuge made its way into public favor upon the strength of its own intrinsic merits, more than any other medicine of the kind now used; and while many worm remedies have, by dint of puffing, been forced into, and sold with the credulous public, which the worthlessness justly merited, B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge continues to be triumphantly sustained. It has only to be used once, and will fully sustain all that is said of its wonderful expelling power.

CERTIFICATE.

Wales, Erie Co., New York, Jan 7, 1843.

We certify that we have used B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge in our families, and in every case it has provided a decided and effectual remedy for expelling worms from the system, and cheerfully recommend it to parents who have children afflicted with that dangerous malady.
