POTTSVILLE

SATURDAY NORNING, JUNE 23 1849 Cholera .- There were six cases of cholers in Philadelphia on Tuesday, two of which proved Philadelphia on a usuay, three cases-one death, age in orthography.

The following recommendation is from the School The Great Barrington (Mass.) Courier mys, the principal occupation of the male inhabitants of that village, at present, is pitching pennies.

Respect to Mr. Polk.-The President has issued, through the proper department, a proclamation announcing to the nation the death of is I James K. Polk, ex-President of the United States, id and ordering suitable military and naval honors to be paid to his memory.

California -It is said there are about thirty thousand Mexicans on their way to the gold regions. They go in parties regularly armed and organized. General Persifer F. Smith's proclamations are utterly disregarded, and serious difficulties are anticipated if he attempts to put them

13 Americans at Rio.-A Letter to the Albany A gus states that two Americans for some indignities to the chief functionary of Rio, were recently sentencee to be hung, but our Consul interfering in their behalf, their sentence was commuted, and they were sent to the mines for ten years. The Americans were members of a party on their way to Californie, but their names are not mentioned.

A Gentleman, residing in Albany, as the story goes, seeing an Irishman removing an embankment from a dwelling inquired :- "Patrick. what are you doing ?" I am opening the cellar window, to be sure .- "And what are you doing that for ?" "May it please your honor," said Patrick, to let out the dark."

Disgraceful Riots in Moyamensing The district of Mayamensing was the scene of a disgraceful and bloody riot during the whole of Saturday night, and Sunday, growing out of a feed existing between two rival gangs of rowdies which resulted in the death of one man, and secione injuries to several others.

Fatal Rencontre.—A recontre tock piace between Cissius M. Clay and a Mr. Turner, at a public meeting, in Rentucky, in which Mr. Clay was seriously injured, while his adversary was fatally wounded. It appears that Mr. Clay having accepted an invitation to address a meeting of Emancipationists in Madison Co., was addressing the sale meeting of the assemblage on the subject of slavery, and offence being taken at some of his remarks, Mr. Turner got up and called Mr. Clay a list; hence the sale meeting of the alternation which resulted, as above stated.

Harrisburg, June 18, 1849. B. Bannan:—I have very recently been shown a copy of "Ticknor's Columbian Spelling Book," published by you, and requested to express my opinion of its merits as a School Book. Mr. Ticknor, the Author, has been long identified with the educational system of our date as a practical Teacher: not a theoretical pedagonue, and by his experience is competent to read the "young idea" in a pleasant way, through the (to it) intricate ways of rudimental learning.
