You have entered upon the autumn of your being—and whatever may have been the profusion of your spring—or the that the great toe of this statue has been entirely worn away by the lips of the Catholics is not exactly true. It is a Protestant tale. Yet it is true that the repeated kisses of the faithful for hundreds of years have worn it away considerably. No Catholic passes it without stopping to kiss it. To see poor ignorant people do so, that is bad enough; but to see men of learning and science, and of cultivated minds, like the Pope and Cardinals, constantly approaching this image, with all cent language of heaven—it mingles its voice.
