141 votes were polled. The Emporium advocates the election of Col. gins, Esq., admitted to practice in the several Straub as Sheriff, and they are not so ignorant as Courts of this County.

not to know that the people of all parties have determined to elect Capt, Nagle,a modest, unas-suming Mechanic, Sheriff of Schuylkill county, by an overwhelming majority, for the services General of the Division of Pennsylvanis Militia, he has readered his country in the time of trial, and who is fresh from the ranks of the people,hence their anxiety to have him withdrawn from the contest, and also to create the impression in this county that other candidates, who will scarcely receive a dozen votes in our Borough, will command a strong vote here. The wisdom and cunning of the Emporium, is not past finding

In conclusion, we thank the Emporium for publishing the above article, and thus giving us an opportunity to give a true statement of the probable vote of our Borough. have maile them and the government very obnoxious to the Roman people. The French expedition was a most infortunate affair, and the French government is placed in a more emparraging position now than ever. The French army is still at Rome, but discontent is known to prevail in its rankss. There are 4000 Republican soldiers of the Roman army with them, who are ready to rise at a moment's notice. A separation of the temporal and spiritual power of the Pope will alone satisfy, the people. The French government is beginning to discover that it made a great mistake in its viplomacy, and it has recently intimated to the Popo that Generol Oudinot has exceeded his instructions, that he acts of the Pontifical commission are displeasing, and that if the Roman people should again rise in favor of liberal institutions, the French must be pre paid at this officel ANDREW MORTIMEE, P.
