ANNEXATION OF CANADA. Affairs in Canada are daily assuming a mon teresting character. The feeling of disconten spreading, and the all-pervading topic now is,

Annexation to the American Union". The recent difficulties-the approval of the course of Lord Elgin, by the British Crown, with other causes, strongly tend to alleniate the affections of the Queen's Canadian subjects. An address has this State, and now more than sixty thousand been published, by a Committer, consisting of individuals of all parties, to the people of Canada. in which they state the grievances under which they have labored-and the improper course pursued by the Mother Country towards them --The condition of the colonies and the United States, is strikingly contrasted, and the cause of the same is traced to the want of proper protection-It is stated, that with superabundant water-power and cheap labor, the colonies have no domestic manufactures, and that neither capital nor enterprise can be embarked in such undertakings, while the country remains under the presen government. As a remedy to this state of things the six following suggestions are enumerated. 1. "The revival of Protection in the markets of the Huited Kingdom."

2. "The Protection of Home Manufactures."

3. "A Pederal Union of the British American 4. "The Independence of the British North American Colonies as a Federal Republic."

5. "Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as respects the products of the farm, the

orest, and the mine."

6. "Friendly and peaceful separation from British connection, and a union, upon equitable terms, with the great North American confederacy of sovereign states"

Among the above, none strikes us as more significant than the sixth, which at once unfolds the grand secret of the important movement. The address, then goes on at considerable length, and while none but friendly feeling are entertained by the Canadians, they come to the conclusion. that a political revolution in that country is not far distant, as will be seen by the following extract from the address:

"Among the statesmen of the Mother Countr -among the statesmen of the Mother Country

Mr, George Adams a member of Tremont Lodge, 245—he was a worthy member an estimable citizen, and his loss is sincerely regretted by a large circle of brothers and friends.—

The Lodge passed the following resolutions of sympathy and condetence.
Whereas, it has again pleased an All Wise Providence to visit this Lodge with affliction, in depriving us
by death of our esteemed and beloved brother, George Adam; Therefore,
Becolved, That we mingle our sorrows with those of his berevied widow, and corrowing friends, for we too have lost a brother and a friend, and as such we mourn his loss.
Resolved, That the Lodge adopt the customary symhols of mourning for thirry days, as a token both of outward respect; and of the warmest feelings of our hearts.

Resolved, That has a token of respect to the memory
of our departed Brother, the numbers of this Lodge

the concussion the coffin received, that it was severed in two, by which the deceised was thrown upon the bage ground. It was then taken upon and finally deposited. It affords uson pleasure to allude to such uniters, and we increty refer to it, to deprecate the brutal propensities of those who can so far forget the dictates of humanity and religion, as to allow themselves to be thus debased.

The Wather, for the last few days, has been quite pretty—more like Spring than Antumn, but the monitions by which we are surrounded.
