BROTHER JONATHAN FOR CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEARS.—This great heliday pager has been received, and we must acknowledge that we are definited with its appearance. It certainly presents the grandeal display of large and heautiful Engravig. we were saw collected together. "The Plensures, Follike and Miserces of Christmas in New York." is an engraving of enormous size, occupying and coing accurate of the paper. The sputies group of portraits of President Taylor and his Cabinate; and the grand tableau of Poor Richard's Way to Wealth, so to make up the remaining outer pages. These are the principal features, while the finor pages refull of choice holiday reading, illustrated in the most ample and costly manner. We are informed that one hundred thousand copies of the Holiday Erother Jonathan are usually sold; and this extensive all accounts for its astonishing cheapness, viz. 12 crits per copy, or ten for one dollar. Wilson & Co. New York, are, the publishers. Also for sale at Bannan's Book Stores.
