I took his advice, and after using up seyeral bottles of it, I grew so much better that I was enabled to leave my bed, and afterwards to walk about the house, and not continued the use, of your medicine, and now, by nowns of its wondernal curative powers, I am perfectly well, and enjoy the use of all my faculties, but its much us if I had never been affleted in the way I have described to you. A Derangement of the Norvous Systems (1) In NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the diseine, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prestrated system; while under the strengthening, life-giving, vitalizing influence of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery, the exhausted patient and weskened sufferer is restored to former health, strength, elasticity and vigor. The great peculiarity and excellence of

Dr. Christie's Galvanic Curatives, consists, in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by estimated application, in place of the usual mode of drugging and physicking the patient, till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.
They strengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, premote the excellent, and never do the slightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since more than 60.000 Persons including all ages, classes and conditions, among which were a large number of ladies, who are peculiarly subject to Nervous Complaints, have been ENTIRELY AND PERMANENTLY CURED, when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vain ! when all hope of relief had been given up, and every thing else been tried in vann:

To illustrate the lise of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSFEISIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Divider. In ordinary cases, atimulants are taken on binorder. In ordinary cases, atimulants are taken which, by their action on the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford temperary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state, and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceused. Now compare this with the effect resulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT.—Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worse symptoms of an attack, and simply tio the Belt around the body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the insensible perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and hence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system Thus the most avers cases of Dyspersial are PERMANENTLY CURED. And yet there are some who are foolish enough to doubt that a man may be born with the power to see into fature events. How can it be possible that the destiny of man should be destined by the mere shuffling of a pack of cards 1 and yet there are thousands who allow themselves, with omouths, to swallow the greary words of some did woman, whose true skill consists in filling them with womders that are most difficult for the digestion of others who are most erduluous, yetnore scientific. PLANT THE BEST .- Mr. Editor: - My moto is, and my advice to every farmer is always propagate from the best. The effects of this e, and of care in the cultivation, are wonderfully exemplified in the history of almost very production of value at present to be und either in the garden or upon the farm. Indeed, scarcely a single vegetable known either to the gardener or farmer at this day, can be found in the pristine state.

Wheat is a factitious production; and so barley, hemp, and ryc. Rice and cats are never found wild. They are, together with the aforementioned grains, the result of care. ful culture, graduated upon principles of science and enlightened effort. The potato one of the most valuable, and, perhaps, salutary of all our editable esculents, is a native of Chili and Monte Viden, and is a small, bitter, and disgustingly nauseating root. Cabbage, celery and asparagus, likewise owe icinal agents, have furnished no examples to com-pare with the salutary effects preduced by "AVER'S THERRY PECTORAL". ORCHARD GRASS.—Mr. Editor :- You have, I think published articles upon the cultivation of this grass. The remarks, however, which I am about to offer, relate to facts not before touched upon by any of the writers who have treated on the subject either in your paper, or any other as I have I regard this production as a valuable ac-acquisition to our husbandry, and certainly very desirous of seeing it more extensively introduced; for I feel confident that the more the knowledge of it is diffused," the more mers, and that nothing but a fair and impartial trial is demanded to secure to it the attention and consideration it deserves. The point, however, which I wish more particularly to impress upon those who may attemp its propagation, is this:

The seed of the Orchard Grass is very light -weighing upon an average, I believe, not more then twelve or fourteen pounds per bushel, and as the germ is enclosed in the hull, it must be thoroughly soaked before committing it to the soil, or it will fail to grow.—
The most effectual, and at the same time, expeditious method of preparing it, is to spread the seed upon a close floor, and sprinkle it with tepid water by means of a common watering or garden pot, and then with a rake or some other suitable instrument, mix it so as
