LOVE AT TWO-SCORE.

Ho! pretty page, with dimpled chin, That never has known the burber's shear, All your aim is woman to win.
This is the way that boys begin,
Wait till you've come to forty year! Curly gold locks cover foolish brains,

Curly gold locks cover 100188 brains, Billing and cooring is all your cheer, Sighing and singing of midnight strains Under Bonnybells, window-panes, Wait till you've come to forty year! Forty times over let Michaelmas pass, Grizzling hair the brain doth clear; Then you know a boy is an ass, Then you know the worth of a lass, Once you have come to forty year.

Pledge me round, I bid ye declare, All good fellows whose beards are grey, Did not the fairest of the fair ommon grow, and wearisome, ere Ever a month was past away?

The reddest lips that ever have kissed.
The brightest eyes that ever have shone,
May pray and whisper and we not list,
Or look away and never be missed,
. Bre yet ever a month was gone.

Gillian's dead, Heaven rest her bier;
How I loved her twenty years syne!
Marian's married, but I sit here,
Alive and merry at forty year,
Dipping my nose in the Gaseon wine!

Wit and Lumor.

M'CRACKEN'S EXPERIENCE. Tell us about that fight, Joe. Why, you see, boys, it was one of the tightest places I ever was in-(Jack give us a light, will you?) never seed prezacly as many men around one fellow afore; an' I would'nt a cared much then, ef it had been in a place whar I knowed the ropes; but I never had seen Louisville; but somehow, I thought ef I was to get into a fight, I'd show some of them chaps that McCracken could put in some right tall licks. So, I takes off my kome-spun, rolls up my sleeves, when all at once suthin struck me-

Who was it? Why, I'd noticed a tall feller on the outside of the crowd pick up a rock, but it wasn't him, for he threw it down again; another feller, a Major something, had an eternal big hickory stick in his fist, and—

A Derangement of the Nervous Systems

Or in NERVOUS COMPLAINTS, Drugs and Medicines increase the disease, for they weaken the vital energies of the already prostrated system; while under the strengthening, life-giving, vitalizing induces of Galvanism, as applied by this beautiful and wonderful discovery, the exhausted patient and weakened sufferer is restored to former health, strength, elasticity and vigor. The great peculiarity and excellence of Dr. Christie's Galvanic Curatives, consists, in the fact that they arrest and cure disease by contrast application, in place of the usual mode of drugging and physicking the patient, till exhausted Nature sinks hopelessly under the infliction.

They arrengthen the whole system, equalize the circulation of the blood, promote the secretions, and never do the nightest injury under any circumstances. Since their introduction in the United States, only three years since 60,000 Persons

Ilenay Dalley, Esq., New York—

Dear Sir: I hereby certify, that in the early part o March hist, while engaged in blasting rocks, a charge of powder prematurely exploded, taking full effect upon my face, chest, and left arm, and burnt me in a dreadful manner. I was carried home on a litter, mn face swollen to twice its natural size; the flesh torn off my am, below the elbow; and my eyes filled with powder and dust. A Physician called in, expressed strong doubts as to the saving of my left eye, which had several cuts over the ball; and my face being burntial over, and bavins thiegk black scab over it he directed pouttices to be applied, to draw out the powder. This I resisted, being fearful of losing my eyes; and baving heard much of your Pain Extractor, I concluded to try it. I did so, and in less than a fortnight, and without any other application than your Extractor, I was completely cured, without a scar, and my eyesight fully restored.

AWFIII. CASE OF SCALD:

Wheatfield, Magara cs. N. Y., Esb. 28, 1818. when all hope of relief had been given ap, and every thing else bean tried in vain!

To illustrate the use of the GALVANIC BELT, suppose the case of a person afflicted with that bane of civilization, DYSEESIA, or any other Chronic or Nervous Disorder. In ordinary cases, stimulants are taken, which, by their action or the nerves and muscles of the stomach, afford tempérary relief, but which leave the patient in a lower state, and with injured faculties, after the action thus excited has ceased. Now compare this with the effect fesulting from the application of the GALVANIC BELT! Take a Dyspeptic sufferer, even in the worse symptoms of an attack, and simply tie the Belt around the body, using the Magnetic Fluid as directed. In a short period the innemable perspiration will act on the positive element of the Belt, thereby causing a Galvanic circulation which will pass on to the negative, and hence back again to the positive, thus keeping up a continuous Galvanic circulation throughout the system. Thus the most severe cases of DYSPEFSIA are PERMANENTLY CURED. A FEW DAYS 18.9FTEN AMPLY SUFFICIENT TO ERADICATE THE DISEASE OF YEARS.

THE FOREST TREE. Hail to the lone old forest tree,
Though past his leafy prime!
A type of England's past is he—
A tale of her olden time.
He has seen her sons, for a thousand years,

Around him rise and fall;
But well his green old age he wears;
And still survives them all.
Then long may his safeguard the pride and
Of our children's children bes;
And long way his safeguard the pride and And long may the axe and tempest spare.

The lone old forest trea!

The Normon baron his steed has rein'd

And the pilgrim his journey stay'd;
And the toil-worn serf brief respite gain'd.
In his broad and pleasant shade.
The friar and forester loved it well;
And hither the jocund horn,
And the solemn tone of the vesper bell, On the evening breeze were t Friar and forester, Lord and slave, Lie mouldering, side by side, In the dreamless sleep of a nameless grave, Where revelling earth-worms hide;

And Echo no longer wakes at the sound

Of bugle or vesper chime;
For earlie and convent are ivy-bound, By the ruthless hand of time. But gentle and &w, with the stout old tree, Have the spoiler's dealings been; And the brook, as of old, is clear and free,

And the brook, as of old, is clear and free,
And the turi beneath as green.
Thus Nature has scattered, on every hand,
Her lessons, since each begun;
And long may her sylvan teacher stand,
A check to the pride of man,
And long may his safeguard the pride and
Of our children's children be;
Long, long may the axe and tempest spare
The lone old forest tree.

PEDIGREE OF ENGLISH HORSES. The Spanish horse, which was derived probably, to a considerable extent, from eastern blood, and which was esteemed beyond all others for the saddle, and was yet so fleet. as to be used for racing, may be considered as the progenitor of the English saddle-horse. The Spanish breed was introduced very largev into England; for we find that Edward III imported fifty Spanish horses, at a cost equal to £160 each of our present money. The Spanish horse was celebrated for his beauty and the grandeur of his action; and as he was used as a war-horse, he must have been an animal of some strength. The effect of the humid pastures of England was, no doubt, to enlarge his size. Edward II imported thirty Lombardy war-horses and twelve heavy draught-horses, thus accounting very easily for the source of our heavy cart breeds. Extensive importations were Palso, from time to time, received from Flanders; indeed, during the century, it was customary for our wealthier gentry to drive to the metropolis behind six Flanders mares. Those of a gray color were preferred, and hence the origin of the proverb, "The gray mare is the better horse." The Barb and the Arabian are separate varieties of the same. original breed, modified by different climate, food, and treatment. The Barb is the origin of the English thorough-bred horse; for we find that when the Duke of Newcastle wrote

This horse the sire of the colebrated Child-This horse, the sire of the celebrated Childers, and the great great grandfather of the still more celebrated Eclipse, was also the sire of the most celebrated horses of his ime, and may be considered as one of the principal foundation stones of our noble breed of race horses, which may thus be considered to inherit the peculiar excellence of the Barb Arabian, and the Turk, still farther improved and enlarged by English feeding and careful selection. In tracing the history of English race-horses, we may at once go back to Eclipse, in reference to whose pedigree we find that he was fourth in descent from the Darley Arabian, and the sixth from the Leeds Arabian, the seventh in descent from the Barb mare, the third from the Godolphin Arabian (supposed to be a Barb) the fifth from Hutton's gray Barb, and the sixth from the Sister Turk, in four several and different lines: also, the seventh from D'Atcev's White Turk, in no less than seven
