TO DEATH.

Methinks it were no pain to die.
On such an eve, when such a sky
O'er-canopies life West.
To gaze my fill on yon calm deep,
And, like an infant, go to aleep
On earth, my mother's breast.

There's peace and welcome in you sea.
Of endiess blue tranquility.
The clouds are living things;
Lirace their veins of liquid gold,
Lace them solemnly unfold

Their soft and fleecy wings.

These be the angels that convey
Us weary children of a day—
Life's tedious nothing o'er—
Where neither parsion comes, nor woss,
To wex the genius of reposs.
On death's majestic shore.

No darkness there divides the way With attriling dawn and dazzling day; But gloriously serene Are the interminuble plains;

I know the greeting is severe
To this poor shell of clay;
Yet come, O Beath! thy freezing kiss
Emancipates! thy rest is bliss!
I would I were away.
