BY YESTERDAY'S MAIL. The news in Congress continues to be of no very general interest, the discussions being principally, in the Senate, for the week past, on the Fugitive Slave bill, and in the House on subjects mostly of a local character. The most important information from Washington, is that received by the Repubican, from New Mexico. Governor. Wm. S. Messerdy was elected Representative to Congress, by 500 majority over Hugh N. Smith. Members of the Legislature were also chosen. On their first assembly, some curious scenes were enacted. The parties are divided, one advocating Territorial, the other State Government. A member being received, and not voting with the majority, was expelled and his opponent admitted, whereupon so many of the members being the Manufacture this article, was sold a bors withdrey, that there were not enough the manufacture this article, was sold as

Louis Napoleon is said to be named by Hon. Daniel Wedster as a mediator in the existing difficulties between Portugal and the United States. Several important changes are rumored as about to occur in the Bureau Departments. Thomas Ewbank, Commissioner in the Patent Office, is to be withdrawn, and James L. Edwards, Commissioner of Pensions, and Stephen Pleasanton, fifth Auditor in the Treasury Department, are to share the same fate. Mr. Anderson, Chief Clerk in the Trea-

THE ELECTIONS. Missouri. - The St. Louis Republican, of he 17th inst., says:-"In no event can the najority against the election of Thomas H. Benton be less than 35 on joint ballot. The Legislature is now stated to have the following party complexion. In the Senate there are 33 members—7 of them hold over from the previous election—5 of whom are claimed as Bentonites and 2 as Anti-Bentonites: of the Bentonites 6, the Anti-Bentonites 6, uncertain 2. The House of Representatives, so far as ascertained by returns received at St. Louis on Saturday, is as follows. The Whigs have elected 53 members; Bentonites 41, Anti-Bentonites 25; 9 counties are to be heard from sending as many members. and each party may elect a portion of them. Take the number from the Anti-Bentonites as it now stands, 78-give all those to the Bullion boys, and there will still only be 57 votes for Benton, or a clear majority of 20 against
