OHIO—ITS GROWTH—HARVEST.

The Cincinnati Chronicle furnishes some interesting statistical information of the present condition, and rapid growth of the State, which we extract as follows.

The present year is one of unprecedented prosperity in this State, taken as an entire community. The harvest of the year has been most extraordinary.

We have received details enough of the census, now being taken by the General Government, to feel assured that the population of Ohio is 2,500,000 people.

In 1850 Ohio had 453,000 population. In 1851 581,434. In 1852 708,000. In 1853 834,500. In 1854 961,000. In 1855 1,087,500.

The ratio of increase has been as follows, viz: From 1850 to 1851 12.8%. From 1851 to 1852 21.8%. From 1852 to 1853 15.8%. From 1853 to 1854 14.2%. From 1854 to 1855 12.8%.

By a comparison with other States, it will be seen that the growth of Ohio from 1850 to 1855 exceeds by far in its ratio of increase, that of any other State in the Union.
