ous questions raised, together with the reasoning of the Court, in support of the several opinions delivered.

The necessity of such a work considering the voluminous nature of our Pennsylvania Reports, must be obvious to all. To the Junior of the profession, it will be an economy of time and money; while to the Senior, in extensive practice, the work will assist in lightening the performance of his obserous dutles.

Buisscriptions received, and the first volume for sale at the public house of Mortimer & Brother, in the boroust in lightening the performance of his obserous dutles.
