ARINGE JOURNAL AND POTTSVILLE GENERAL ADVERTIS

It cannot be doubted that a rate of duty higher on many articles than that paid by the present law might be established without affecting injuriously the revenue. The extraordinary influx of foreign merchandize for the last year, and the first quarter of the present one must be regarded as conclusive proof that an increase of duties, so as to advance the amount of imports, is cultiely practicable.

That such increases will be tound necessary to the demands of the Treasury, is believed to be beyond doubt, unless Congress should discontinue many of the objects of expenditure which originated in our recent territogial acquisition, and this, in the opinion of the Department, would be equally
