

MINERS' JOURNAL

SATURDAY, FEB. 1, 1851.

The People's Road.—We learn from the papers, that the new Railroad is attracting some attention in Philadelphia...

The Prison.—The Commissioners have proposed for the erection of the new County Prison in another column of our paper.

A number of Articles intended for this week's Journal have been crowded out. We are so dimensions are, we cannot find room for half the matter that crowds upon us.

Petitions.—During the week, petitions to the State Legislature have been circulated and numerous signed in this place, and in other parts of the county, praying the removal of the Records from Orwigsburg...

Protection to Schuylkill County.—The Meeting on Thursday night was more largely attended than we had anticipated.

Who Makes the Drunkards?—In our previous articles we have shown the prevalence and injurious consequences of the use of alcohol.

Fugitive Slave arrested.—The fugitive slave of Thomas Briggs of Clarke Co., Va., was arrested last week at this place by Deputees John J. Sanders, of Harrisburg...

Democracy in Lancaster County.—A Democrat says that the Reading Journal on the signature of G. C. S. (we have a mind to give our friend Stoddard credit) furnishes the following piece of information...

Population of Maryland.—No. of Whites in 1850, 412,803. No. of Free Negroes, 11,158. Total Population, 423,961.
