SCHUYLKILL NAVIGATION.
We feel satisfied that if the Schuylkill Navigation would strike out an independent course, and fix their toll on Coals at 45 cents per ton...

WHAT HUM DOES!
Mr. B. BANNAN, Dear Sir: In compliance with your request, we have enclosed the enclosed statement, as the result of our investigation. Yours respectfully, JACOB SAYLOR, Steward.

Table with columns: FROM WHERE BROUGHT, Tons, Cents. Lists various locations like Pottsville, Minersville, etc.

Statement showing where from, and the cause of 230 Paupers remaining in the Schuylkill County Almshouse, March 3d, 1851.

Table with columns: FROM WHERE BROUGHT, Tons, Cents. Lists various locations like Pottsville, Minersville, etc.

Here are facts that may well set every citizen of the county to thinking. They are facts that should be regarded with care and concern. Pottsville, we are sorry to see, holds a position more conspicuous than enviable. There are several striking conclusions in the above tables that have not escaped us, and which we will further explain for the enlightenment of our readers on this subject.

Mr. Robbins has published a Card in reply to an article, which appeared in the Journal two weeks ago. We gleaned our information from a letter from Harrisburg, published in one of the Philadelphia papers.

We publish the proceedings of the Locococe county meeting in our columns this week. We do it for the benefit of our readers, although we believe, no Locococe paper in Schuylkill county has ever published the proceedings of a Whig meeting.

The North American and United States Gazette copies an article from a Boston paper, stating that capitalists, who sold out Philadelphia and Reading stock at 37 and 38 per share, are reporting on the market as extremely doubtful.

The following is a table number of the Daguerian Journal, announcing a remarkable discovery, being nothing less than a process for procuring colored—real nature colored—daguerotypes pictures.

CONJURERS. A New York correspondent sends us the following conjurers. We recognize one of them as an 'old acquaintance'—our friend may be responsible for the rest: 'Who is the shortest man spoken of in the Bible?'

MYSTERIOUS KNOCKINGS. The Lowell [Mass] Courier thus raps the recent Coalition faction of that State over the knuckles: 'A branch of the Mysterious Knocking Family have recently arrived in this city, and we believe, occasionally give lessons.'

DEBENS WISHING TO BUY CARPETS OR TO LET THEM. The subscriber, he being in a hurry to leave the city, and light some carpets in the city, offers the following: 'Imperial, Heavy, and Light, all of the best quality, and at low prices.'

BEAVER HEADLION IRON WORKS. HUBBARD & ALLEN, IRON AND STEEL WORKS. The subscribers, who have been established in Pottsville, Pa., for the purpose of manufacturing and repairing all kinds of iron and steel work.

PROGRESS OF TEMPERANCE. According to the most authentic advices, the total quantity of coffee and cocoa consumed in the year ending 31st January, 1850, amounted to 60,000,000 pounds.

THE COAL TRADE FOR 1851. The quantity sent this week by Railroad is 25,300 tons, showing an increase since 200 over last week.

THE EXPEDIENCE OF THE LAST YEAR. A table showing the quantity of coal sent by Railroad in 1850, compared with the quantity sent in 1849.

RAILROADS. The following is a table showing the amount of coal transported over the different Railroads in Schuylkill County for the week ending Thursday evening last.

News Items. Changing Names.—A bill has been introduced into our State Legislature, empowering the Board of Common Pleas of any county of the State, to make a decree changing the name of any person residing in any county at any time three months after being petitioned for the same by such person; provided, that notice of the application, as well as the decree after the same, shall be published in one or more newspapers, to be designated by the Court. It provides, further, that any person whose name is thus changed shall pay, before the entering of the decree, to the Prothonotary of said Court, ten dollars, of which two dollars shall be retained by the Prothonotary, and the remainder shall go to the use of the State as a tax upon the decree.

City of Churches.—The Gazette thinks Reading will soon be to Pennsylvania, what Brooklyn is to New York.—The City of Churches. Besides improvements in the German Lutheran and Episcopal Churches, two new ones are to be built this year.

Gen. Cass at Home.—The recent election of Gen. Cass at Home, resulted in the success of the Whig candidate by upwards of 300 majority. The contest was Cass and Fremont. The Council is also Whig.—This is a Whig victory.

New Hampshire.—The election took place in this State on Tuesday next for Representatives, members of Congress, &c. There were three candidates in the field, and the following is the vote as far heard from: Sawyer, Whig, 9,127; Dinsmore, regular Locococe, 12,079; Wood, Free Soil, 6,244.

High Rates.—The wisecracker who writes the money articles for the Philadelphia Ledger, was, in yesterday's paper trying to create the impression that Reading stock declined in consequence of a rumor that the tolls, &c., were to be reduced. This is all nonsense, and the wisecracker is engaged in these misapprehensions.

People's Railroad. At a Public Meeting of the citizens of Blythe Township held at Middleport, at the public house of C. Rahn, February 27th, 1851—On motion MICHAEL QUINN was elected Chairman; J. F. Frisvold, Isaac Merkz, Vice Presidents; C. Deaton, J. Erdman, Secretaries. On motion Daniel Koch, Thomas Polard, Joseph Edwards, Jno. Williams, Lewis Geary, P. D. Frisvold, and L. O'Bryan, were chosen a committee to draft Resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting, who after retiring a short time returned as follows: Resolved, that we are in favor of the incorporation of the 'People's Railroad' from Pottsville to Norristown, and request our friends to exert their best efforts to have the said Road chartered as soon as possible.

Resolved, that we do hereby cooperate with other parties in the purchase of the Reading Railroad Company, until 'forbearance is no longer a virtue.' Resolved, that our members of the Legislature, be and they are requested to carry out to our interests, in reference to having our transportation reduced.

Resolved, that we are opposed to having any more collieries opened, or worked, by corporations whether under the name and style of Improvement Companies, or Rail Road Companies. Resolved, that we fully agree with the resolutions and proceedings of the meetings held in Pottsville, Minersville, Tremont, &c., and recommend meetings be held throughout the Region. Resolved, that these proceedings be signed, and be hereby requested to carry out to our members of the Legislature.
