Temperance Lectures.—Several Temperance lectures were delivered here last week and on Sunday night last, by Rev. John C. Hawkins, one of the original Baltimore Washingtonians. Mr. Hawkins, we understand, is a licensed minister of the Congregational Church, but knowing book from observation and experience the evils in the people's Road is made.

Mr. Bannan.—It is now evident that the Reading Railroad Company are determined to make no reduction in rates, unless they are forced to do so. Their plan is to throw the responsibility of all arrangements upon the Coal Operators, whom they have divided by promises of advantages, knowing that they cannot agree, owing to the conflicting interests which prevail at Richmond, and in this Region. Their policy is to divide and conquer; put tolls in their pockets, and get pussession of the Collieries of the Region—and also control the landed interests and dictate the price of rents, &c. If nothing else can be done at present, I would advise the immediate application for the passage of a law prohibiting the Officers and Agents of the Reading Railroad, and other transporting Companies, from engaging, directly or indirectly, in mining and selling Coal. Such a law may save the Region nntil the People's Road is made.
