Gold-emith, Newcomb and Farless, the sum of forty dollars for the purchase of that quantity of this medicine, and I beg of yon to deliver the Pills as frash as possible. I request you also to desire Dr. Wright to have bail directions translated in French, which willtend great-ly to circulate his Pills not only here, but also in the other colonies where the population is more bunnerous. Excuse me, gentlemen, in the liberty i have taken to address you this letter, which, for the sake of hu-manny. I have been compelled to do, as I do not mean to speculate on an uticle which proved salutary to a number of poor people, and in fact most of the popu-tation is reduced to a state of indigence, and it would be sinful for any one to seek lucre in such a way.
