Tariff of 1842. Wilmot is an out-and-

"After repeated calls, Hon D Wilmot very briefly addressed the meeting. He said that the Democrats assembled had left their labors to hear the views of their candidate for Governor, and that it would not be just for him to occupy their atten-tion. That he heartify endorsed his views upon the tariff, and the principles he had avowed touching the banking system, and our State policy in

The above figures do not represent the whole working population in Belgium, of course; in fact, they exclude the whole agficultural class, which would have made the statistics still more melancholy; but they represent, without doubt, a fair average estimate of town wages throughout the King-

What is to prevent the prices of any labor coming down to the same rates in this country, but protective duties on the products of the cheap labor of Europe ! Can any Free Trader answer? Ocean transportation is generally cheaper than inland transportation, and goods can be sent from Belgium to New York as cheap as from the interior of Pennsylvania to New York.

LOCOFOCO CONSISTENCY.

We have already stated that the Locofocos in Pennsylvania are claiming credit for exclusive patriotism and devotion to the rights of the South in some counties, while in others they court the abilitionists and Free Soilers, and form alliances with Wilmot & Co.- In the South the same party is so ultra fluence. In Massachusetts, Vermont, Ohio, and other free States, they form coalitions with the abolitionists. In Ohio, their late maintain the doctrines affirmed by them in 1848, and re-affirmed in 1850 in their State from their proceedings of 1850:

Resolved, That, on the question of slavery, we hereby reaffirm the resolutions of said convention of 1848, in the words following: "That the people of Ohio, now, as they always have done, look upon the institution of slavery, in any part of the Union, as an evil, and unfavorable to the full development of the spirit and benefits of free institutions : and that, entertaining such sentiments, they will at all times feel it their duty to use all power, clearly given by the national compact, to prevent its increase to mitigate, and FINALLY to eradicate the
