THE CHRISTIANA OUTRAGE.

Its Effect in Philadelphia. A few of the Locofoco leaders in Philade phia have been most busy in trying to cre ate an excitement against Gov. Jonnston and the Whigs, in consequence of the late unfortunate outrage in Lancaster County. The more sensible portion of the community, of both parties, despise such unprincipled trickaccidental circumstance, deprecated alike by men of sense and lovers of law and order everywhere, and such as from the very nature of its suddenness and unexpected occurrence, could not have been prevented by any provision on the part of anybody.

It is known that Philadelphia has peculiar interests at stake in the agitation of every thing that pertains to the Compromise measures. She very naturally and very justly wishes to retain as much Southern good will as possible, and therefore might, as a matter of consequence, be expected to repudiate idendity with any abolition sympathies, that might attach to her individually, pacities to avoid giving offence to her as the time for its reception. A large num-Southern friends. We make this plain premise in regard to the position of Philadelphia, as showing the specious influence these Locofoco leaders have endeavored to wield. to the prejudice of the Whig party in that city, and then in conclusion to show how " wide o' the mark " their aim has been, and how these unprincipled efforts will recoil upon their own heads, and in the end benefit Johnston and the Whig cause. The Ledger, an acknowledged opposition paper, introducing the Gorsuch letter, on Monday, remarks, alluding to the corres-

Johnston, comes out independently in his defence in this matter. The Editor says in the lades wished me to saysthat they fully appricate and admire the wire and judicious maningment of public affairs, for which your administration has been preminently distinguished, and also the high-minded, candid and honorable course, which has marked your canvassing for re-election to the unscrupulous partizants, windfalls, which are eagerly seized upon as affording opportus and eagerly seized upon as affording opportus in the unscrupulous partizants, windfalls, which has marked your canvassing for re-election to the responsible post of Chief Executive of this Commonwealth, which you have filled with such credit to yourself and advantage to the State. They bade me say, that they, each and every one, from their whole hearts, wished you entire success in the coming election and a glorious triumph over your political enemies. They wish you ance of store the comming election and a glorious triumph over your political enemies. They wish you ance of store the resources of the State, and establish her wealth and prosperity upon a permanent basis.— They wish you success for your own sake, believing that me executive officer who has faithfully and efficiently discharged the duties of his post, deserves reappointment to the same or a similarly high posting as an act of gratuide at the hands, of the Crockett himself-we quote his own lan-Crockett himself—we quote his rown language:—"Notwithstanding all the well known circumstances of the case, although it was perfectly understood that the affray at the Gap was the natural result of a contact of the contact of the present campaign, regarding your elevation to the Gubernatorial Chair of Pennsylvania as merely a stepping-stone to still herber and more responsible functions to at the Gap was the natural result of a contest between liberty and slavery—although it which your abilities entitle you. was notorious that the negroes had fled, and all who were not arrested were secreted—although it was a matter of common knowledge that not a single man stood up to
