Now we want to make a plain straight story out of these enormous charges against the Governor, for the benefit of our readers: after which we have a short account, in behalf of the people, against this knowing Senator, who discourses so eloponerity of economy in the public finances.

During the Session of 1850, the Session commenced on the 1st day of January, and sat to May motion was mide to allow the members three dollars per day, during the 35 days beyond 100, and the vote is as follows, as recorded on page 104, Senate Journal 1850.

Being thus fairly and Constitutionally appointed Governor, and discharging the duties of the office, he was, of course entitled to the usual salary. His account was accordingly audited and approved by Jno. N. On the question, will the Senate agree to the resolution? A motion was made by Mr. Brown and Mr. Caldwell, that the report be recommitted to the Committee on accounts with instructions to the committee of the co son, to amend the motion by striking therefrom all after the word "instructions," and inserting in lieu thereof. "to report the rame at the rate of, five dollars a day, for the time the Legislature was in Session, from and after the 12th day of May."

On the question, will the Senate agree so to amend? The previous question was called for by Messrs. Penrose, Cochran, Myers, Spackman and Brooke. On the question, shall the main question be now put? The Yeas and Nays were required by Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Flemming, and are as follows?

So it was determined in the affirmative. On the main question, will the Senate agree to the resolutions, as reported by Charles Frailey? The Yeas and Nays were required by Mr. Brown and Mr. Patterson, and are as follows:

them were Gen. Morales and three other officers killed. The forces of Carabajal, the insurgent leader, sustained no loss whatever. The whole number of men engaged under him was only about four hundred.

THE Masons had a grand parade in Philadelphia last Tuesday in the funeral ceremonies of Stephen Girard. Hon. Joseph. R. Chandler delivered an eloquent oration.

Local Affairs.

Coming .- Welch's National Circus will be here next week. They will exhibit on Friday and aturday afternoons and evenings. Several oright questrian stars accompany the troupe. Those, who love to see good horsemanship, and want to enjoy a hearty laugh, ought to patronise this circus, for there they can be gratified in both these particillurs. For years the "National" has stood unrivalled as the Circus of the times. The Proprietor
