He that lies down with dogs, shall rise up with fleas. A fat kitchen, a lean will. A good wife lost, is God's gift lost. He is ill-clothed who is bare of virtue. Beware of meat twice boiled and an old foe reconciled. A fine genius in his own country, is like old in the mine. The heart of a fool is in his mouth, but e mouth of a wise man is in his heart. Cheese and salt meat should be sparingly Snowy winter, plentiful harvest. Nothing more like a fool than a drunken
