JUDGE CAMPBELL'S DEFEAT.

A few Hints for the Register. A Philadelphia Democrat, writing to the Sun, deals the Pennsylvanian some hard raps for its unceasing whining over Judge Campbell's defeat. The writer presents some excellent views in relation to political religious influence-he says: "We democrats (and our name is legion,) who voted against Judge C., are denounced fearfully; and the Romanists are said to be full of wrath, and are threatening to go over to the other side. Ah -and all this because American freemen did ot see fit, for good and substantial reasons, to not see fit for good and substantial reasons, to elect a member of their Church. With equal propriety the Presbyterians might come out and secert and bluster because Jones and Johnston were not elected. They are both Presbyterians The fact is, there are no religious seets in this country, that durr make a commotion about the political defeat of their members, but the Romansts; nor have any turn the Propriet area done it. Should any of the but the Papists ever done it. Should any of the Christian sects in the land attempt this, the thinders of the press would be down upon them. I am a democrat; was born a democrat, and intendato die a democrat—and I voted araist Judee Campbell, and did all I could to get others to do so too. And that for two reasons: First—I had it from some the best lawyers in this city, both Whigs and Den ocrats, that Campbell was utterly incompetent -And, secondly, I believed then, and believe non And, secondly, I believed them and believe non-that the decision he gave in opposition to Judges King and Kelley, in the Attorney General case, was in direct opposition to the testimony before him, and the convictions of his own con-cience— How could I, or any other honest mail, vote for such a man, to fill a seat on the Supreme Bench of this great State? I would fearlessly ask, is there a man in this whole Commonwealth, Democrat. Whig or Native, who does not in his heart believe that Judges King and Kelley would have decided in with a clear conscience? Not once Why the with a clear conscience? Not one; Why there are we so vilely denounced for doing what we fet be our duty? And why, I would dskydoes Mr Buchanan allow himself to be made the tool of religious sect for political purposes. At the present moment 2,773,833 men are under arms in Europe, kept mainly for the purpose of keeping down the people. In addition to this enormous land force, there are 2763 vessels of war, carrying 44, 105 guns. The aggregate population of Europe is put down at 271,403,000, of which about 80,000,000 are Slavonians, principally found in Russia and Austria. The German and French each number about 36,000,000. The to appoint delegates to the Convention, may be represented by individuals residing in that district, by any person or persons who are known to adhere strictly to the Temperance cause.
