THE MAINE LAW.

It was said by the opponents of this law that thousands of people were leaving Maine, to get rid of its oppressive effect. In Portland, at the recent election, Mr. Dow received nearly two hundred votes more than he did when he was elected, and Judge Parris received about one thousand more votes than the Regions is backward this Spring. did Mr. Dow's former opponent.

Another misrepresentation is, also, corrected by the fact that Judge Parris is a Temperance man—Mr. Dow's defeat, therefore, is not a Rum triumph. No man can take a leading part in any Reform, however bene-ficial, without making many enemies; but  $P_1$  C. 5,159 01 147,113 13 10,795 12 45,632 16 Mt.C. 2,573 10 43,745 02 2,046 02 7,929 00 S H. 14,087 13 189,668 04 5,291 17 25,825 16 Pt.C. 5,447 00 80,086 09 1,010 07 5,862 03 ficial, without making many enemies; but it is no disgrace to forleit the friendship of Total, 30,266 15 460,613 08 19,133 18 85,249 15 such persons.

TSTAND FIRM .- A Connecticut correspondent of the New York Tribune, explaining the recent defeat of the Whigs in that who, after making free of not very choice anguage, resorted to sand-boxes, which each State says : "The result shows that in all towns there the Whigs met the MAIN issue, tendered them by the Locar, the Whigs have, been successful; in all towns, however, where the Whigs were timid and, irresolute regarding that issue, we are defeated." Other accounts from various places in the State, confirm this view of the case-it eaches this important lesson, that the friends of any cause must be decided and 4 toe the mark " if they expect to succeed.

A NEW WORD .- A correspondent of he Albany Journal suggests the word "Telegram," as a substitute for telegraphic despatch, or any other phrase ordinarily used to represent a communication received by telegraph. The word is formed, he says, according to the strictest laws of the language from which its root comes. Telegraph means to write from a distance-Telegram the writing itself, executed from a distance. Monogram, logogram, &c., are words formed on the same analogy, and in good acceptation. TT " EFFECTS OF LOCOFOCO RULE .- The Sheriff of Clarion county advertises that he will offer for sale on the first day of May, sixty-nine separate pieces of real estate embracing NINE furnaces, several mills, and many well improved farms. The descripion of this property fills nearly six columns of the Clarion Register."

THIS MUSEUM of manufactured wares has lost none of its aitractions, and I am how able to offer to the public, either for their inspection or purchase, one of the finest and most useful stock of Foreign and Domes-tic HARDWARE ever offered in the County. With many thanks for the patronage extended to the late firm, I flatter myself able to supply all the wants in my line of business, cheap as the cheapest, with usual promptness and despatch. FRANK POTT. April 3, 1852. CHAINS. TAMES EDMOND, Importer and Dealer in Chains, expressed quite becomingly in the following : "We the subscribers boys and girls of Harris-burg, respectfully petition to the Egislature of Pennsylvania to pass a law like the Maine Liquor Law. We do not feel alraid of becoming drunk ards now; but all who are now intemperate were once children such as we are; and if that law had been passed long ago all these would be rober peo-

By passing such a law you will save us from the risk of becoming drunkards, thereby blessing our parents and society. (Good.)
