HON. HENRY CLAY'S HEALTH. An unfavorable change took place in Mr. LAY's health on Friday of last week, since which time he has been very low. His two sons were sent for and are now in Washington, continually near him. "Independent," of the North American, says, Mr. C. is fully conscious of his situation, and speaks of t with the composure of a philosopher and the resignation of one with an eve fixed on the long vista which opens in the future, where the gates of Time are forever closed behind us. The manner of, and the sensaions attending dissolution, have been the hemes of frequent and calm inquiry by him. It is not pulmonary disease, as is supposed, that has laid its freezing grasp upon the vital lenergies of this shining victim. There is a manifest wearing out of the physical machine, and the doors of humanity swing creaking upon their hinges, as if rusted. P. S .-- The latest accounts from Washington say that the previous reports-about Mr. CLAY's feeble health are greatly exag-

RAILROAD IRON. BEWARE OF CHEAP RAILS! A correspondent inquires as to the fact with regard to the Rails which have broken has been told they are American, which he won't believe, having understood that American Rails are greatly superior to the Bri-We are sorry to say that our correspondent evinces equal ignorance and bigotry.— It is certainly a fact that the Rails made in this country have been superior in the average to those imported from Great Britain: but he who imagines that American Rail or lot of Rails must be better than any Foreign Rail, evinces a lack of sense. In the case of the Eric Rails, it is true that not all but most of them were American, and it happened in this manner: These Rails were made several years ago, at an entirely new concern, which had, of course, no experience in the business. The use was a softness which caused them to vield to the pressure of heavily laden and sidly defaced or flattened. To remedy this, the new American concern made its Rail much harder. The end in view was thus attained; these Rails do not yield to and become flattened by use; after years of severe use, they are scarcely distinguishable in shape from new ones. But in curing one defect another was created. These American Rails, nearly as hard as a diamond, were too brittle, so that, especially when saturated over them, especially where the sleepers are laid well apart. Hence several accidents cold; and we have heard that the Directors contemplate taking up these brittle Rails and replacing them by others, using the old ones for turn-outs, &c., where little harm can result from their breaking. It will, of course, be understood that the extraordinary severity of the past winter has aggravated the evil The latest fashion of Railmaking (we presume in Europe as well as here) unites a-reeach Rail with a hard (consequently brittle) face, some to give security at once against crushing and breaking. This is as it should e; but it was not understood five years ago. And, while better Rails are made now than formerly here, yet ruinously cheap had ones are also made still in great profusion. Some hirty thousand tons of such have recently been imported, and will, in due time, be received. We have many companies only auxious to finish their roads promptly and heaply, and these will be very likely to have bad Rails foisted upon them. Look out!

HOW IT WORKS. One year ago, Portland (Maine) contained from three to four hundred public Grogshops: now not one. In the ten months closing with March, 1851, there were 279 commitments for Drunkenness, Larceny,&c.; for the corresponding ten months ending with March, 1852, there were 135, (less than half the number for the preceding year;) and of these seventy-two for selling Liquor without license, leaving less than one-fourth the number of commitments, save for Rumselling, in ten months, under as during the little period next before the law went into operation. ~
