> DANGEROUS COIN.—A new species of counterfeit gold dollars are now coming into very general circulation-business-men sho'ld ; be on the look-out. The Ledger thus describes the manner of their manufacture,-"The piece, by some fine and ingenious machinery, is split in two, about one half of the coin abstracted, and the plundered sides stuck together again, the face of the piece not the least scarred or injured. A little care will readily detect the fraud. The milling around the edge will be found broken, and very generally a pewier-colored cement may be observed protruding from it. The coin, too, is thin in the middle.

RATHER SHAEP SHOOTING .- A merchant of Baltimore, meeting a young man named Creamer, on the street on Thursday, levelled a double-barrelled rifle at his breast and fired—the ball struck the stock of a pistol in Creamer's pocket and glanced off, passing through one arm, instead of taking effect in a more vital part. The merchant accuses Creamer of having seduced his daugh-

AN EXCITING SOENE.

Yesterday afternoon the police of the Southern District arrested a stout, muscular negro man, wandering around the atreets, insanely drunk, and lodged him in the station house, where they were compelled to chain him. for his own security. Shortly after, when Captain Heffner arrived, to place the watch on duty, the miserable wretch was demoniac form-and all efforts to quiet him proved in vain. He dashed his chains against the floor in frantic efforts to escape from a huge imaginary snake, which he said was swallowing him alive, or extended his clenched fist towards a corner of the room, where, n his distorted vision, he saw Beelzebub emitting hot sulphurous breathings, com-mingled with his hellish threats. The yells, howls and screams of the poor maniac were of such a loud, shrill, unearthly nature, as to alarm the neighborhood, and a number of itizens congregated around the station house, under the impression that some murderous torture was in progress of infliction.

Captain Heffner, to dispel this erroneous impression, invited them in to witness for themselves the condition of the unfortunate man, and upon proceeding to the apartment
