WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION.

This body met in Baltimore, on Wednesday, and effected a permanent organization by appointing Gen. JNO. CHAPMAN, of Maryland, Chairman, with a Vice-President from each State, and thirteen Secretaries. A committee on Credentials was engaged during all the session of Wednesday.

The Hall has been fitted up much more conveniently than it was at the late Demoeratic Convention. Immediately behind the chair of the President is placed a portrait of Washington tastefully decorated with the national emblems, and at the other end of the Hall a Prometheatype likeness of HENRY Chay. Over the platform erected for the officers is a large transparency, having on it WEBSTER's memorable words- Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable!" In front of the officers' stand is another, with the words-" The Union of the Whigs for the sake of the Union." The proceedings of Thursday possess no prominent interest. The Committee on Crelentials had not yet finished their report but were laboring hard to do so that day. After some discussion on various preliminary resolutions, the Convention adjourned till 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when, it is presumed, the Credentials of the members will finally be settled and the Convention proceed to business. The contest promises to be mainly between Scorr and WEBSTER, tho' the friends of all three of the candidates are equally sanguine.

By Telegraph.

BALTIMORE, JUNE 18, 12 O'CLOCK, M. The Convention has appointed a Committee of one from each State, to draft a Platform. The Delegates from New York, admitted to seats, are friends of Fillmore and Webster. The Convention will probably proceed to ballot to-night. Adjourned till 5

SECOND DESPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, Office of North American,

The Convention assembled at 5 o'clock .-The Committee on the Platform, reported almost unanimously the Platform adopted by the Southern delegation on Wednesday morning, modifying slightly the resolution relating to the Compromise and Fugitive Slave law. The Convention is now debatiog it .-Mr. CHOATE, of Massachusetts, and General Hennerson, of Ohio, warmly advocate its adoption. The probability, is, that it will

The following is the Platform alluded to: The Whigs of the United States, in convention assembled, firmly adhering to the great conserva-tive principles by which they are controlled and governed, and now, as ever, relying upon the ingoverned, and now, as ever, relying upon the in-telligence of the American people, with an abiding confidence in their capacity for self-government, and their continued devotion to the Constitution tablishment and maintenance of which their national organization as a party is effected:

1. The Government of the United States is of a limited character, and it is confined to the ex-reise
of powers expressly granted by the Constitution, and such as may be necessary and proper for carrying the granted powers into full execution; and all powers not thus granted or necessarily implied, are expressly reserved to the States respectively.

an powers not this granted or necessarily implied, are expressly reserved to the States, respectively and to the people.

2. The State governments should be held secure in their reserved rights, and the General Government sustained in its constitutional powers, and the Union should be revered and watched over as "the palladium of our liberties."

3. That while struggling freedom, everywhere, enlists the warnest symmetry of the Whire party. enlists the warmest sympathy of the Whig party;

pose on other countries our form of government, by artifice or force, but to teach, by example, and 4. That where the people make and control the government they should obey its Constitution, laws and treaties, as they would retain their self-respect, and the respect which they claim and will enforce from from the respect.
