The editor, Mr. Fogg, is intimately acquainted with him, having for some time been an inmate of the same boarding house with the nominee of the Democracy. The public services of General Pierce, both civil and military, and his public character, are becoming known; but little or nothing is known with regard to his qualifications, the tone and scope of his mind, and his private sentiments and feelings. Mr. Fogg has given some inormation on these points, which he derived Quality the true test of Cheapness. CLOTHING! Clothing !! CLOTHING !! from long acquaintance with Pierce. We give an extract from "the Independent Dem-ocrat," and desire the reader to mark the THE most extensive assorting of Clothing in Schuylkill County, from 20 to 20 percent, cheaper and better made "OLD OAK HALL," corner of Centru and Mahantonweak points in the character of Pierce. them obtain small crops from large surfaces, and the owner of the land becoming poor, while the land itself is exhausted. We have here a vield of 1,750 bushels of apples, worth probably little less than $2,000, from a farm of eight acres, being $250, per acre, while the farmer of Illinois obtains from the richest land in the world forty, fifty, or sixly bushels of corn which he sells at 25 or 30 cents per bushel; and yet he too might raise his apples, his strawberries, and the various other products of the earth that would pay him by hundreds of dollars per acre, if he would but aid in bringing the miner of lead? and the melter of iron and conper ore to the side of himself and his fellow citizens.- The Plow, Loom and Anvil.

THE FOLLOWING, from the National Intelligencer, shows in a strong light the wisdom of Locofoco financiering.

In Mr. Secretary Walker's Annual Report to Congress in 1817, he refers to the table C. C. annexed to it for the probable increased exports of domestic-production under a system of low duties, for which he gives the following figures, viz

$222,808,350 329.959.993 488,445,056 The actual result, as shown by official doc-
