. CONSUMPTION. Of all the numerous medicines extant, (and some of them valuable) for the cure of pulmonary complaints, nothing has ever been found which could compare in its effects with this Preparation. Others cure sometimes, but at all times and in all diseases of the lungs and throat, where medicine can give relief, this will do it. It is pleasant to take, and perfectly safe in accordance with the directions. We do not advertise for the information of those who have tried it, but those who have not. Families that have known its value will not be without it, and by its timely use they are secure from the dangerous consequences of Coughs and Colos, which neglected, ripen into fatal consumption.

FISH STORY. A correspondent of the Portland Transcript cells a story quite as large as we can swal. He recollects an anecdote that was told many years ago by a gentleman of Eastport, respecting cats fishing, that mayhop you have heard. The gentleman alluded to had his shop or store over a whorf, under which the tide ebbed and flowed, and in the floor vas a trap-door, used for various purposes, hrough which he was accustomed to et down a line and catch a fish now and then for pussy's dinner. One day having to pussy go to it and touch it gently. This led him to watch her, when presently a fish caught hold, and Mistress Grimalkin immediately commenced hauling in the line with one paw, securing the slack hauled in by placing the other paw upon it as last as it haul-In this way she at last secured the fish, After that, said my friend, I baited the hook and let her fish for herself, and hundreds have seen her catch her dinner.
