Tonic, prepared from South American berbs and roots, the most successful article ever produced for preserving the hair from falling out or changing color, restoring and preserving it in a healthy, and luxuriant state. Among other seasons why Dollard's hair-cutriate. Among other reasons why Dollard's hair-cutting saloen maintains it immense popularity is the fact that his Tonic to applied to every hend of hair cut at his cetablishment, consequently it is kept in briter preservation than under any other known application. It being thus practically tested by thousands, off-ris the greatest guaranty of lisefficacy.

Sold wholesale and retail at his Old Establishment, 177 CHEANUT ATREFT, opposite the State House, Philas R. DOLLARD has at last discovered the me philas after of HAIR DVE and aunounces it for sale, with perfect confidence in its surpassing everything of the kind now in use. It colors the hair either black or brown, (as may be desired) and is used without any mijerty to the hair or skin, either by stain or otherwise, can be washed off in ten minutes after application, without detracting from its efficacy. Persons visiting the city are invited to give blue call. Letters addressed to R. DOLLARD, 177 Chesnut street, Philadelphia, will receive attention.

GEN. SCOTT'S BENEVOLENCE. A correspondent of the National Intelligencer, writing from Warren county, Tenn., relates the following incident in the life of Gen.

Miscellany.

Scort Some years after the war of 1812 was con-cluded. Gen. Scorr, at Cincinnati, met with Capt. E.—. who had served with him on the Canada frontier in that war. At its close Capt. E left the army, highly esteemed by the General and his fellow-officers, for gallant conduct and amiable qualities. At this meeting with his comrade, Gen. Scott was impressed with the belief that Capt. E ____ was in destitute circumstances, and at once felt a desire to extend to him some reliet; but knowing Capt. E— to be rather sensitive, the General consulted with P—s, Esq., then co-editor in a leading journal in Cincipnati, as to the best-mode of affording substantial aid and comfort to the Captain and his family. They concluded to consti-tute Mrs. P—— sole agent, with discretionary power as to mode and means to carry into execution the benevolent intententions of
