The case is certainly an extraordinary one and has, we learn no precedent on record. We cannot conceive how a Court can be insulted or treated with contempt by the presentment of a respectful Affidavit, showing cause why a Judge ought not to try a case, and containing reasons, which, it true, would be sufficient to debar a person from giving cridence in the case, or a juror from giving cridence in the case, or a juror from giving cridence in the case, or a juror from giving cridence in the case, or a juror from being-empanneded to try it.

COURT PROCEEDINGS. [REPORTED FOR THE MINES' JOURNAL.]

JOHN C. NEVILLE, Esq. -Rule entered by the Court upon John C. Neville, Esq., to how cause why he should not be stricken from the roll of Attorneys for contempt. The following circumstances will show the ground of the Rule entered by the Court. Somemesince, certain facts were suggested by Michael Murphy, a citizen of Pottsville, as the foundation of proceeding in the nature of a Quo Warranto against the "Farmers' Bank of Schuylkill County." for the purpose of avoiding its charter. Jonn C. Neville, with whom were associated L. Baucroft, B. Bartholomew, Thomas H. Walker and Howell Fisher, Esquires, was the Counsel of the relator' Michael Murphy, in the proceeding against the Bank. At a late term of the Court, the petition or bill of the relator was presented, and a partial argument had. At the time of the argument, the Court intimated an opinion, founded on the case of the Court intimated an opinion, founded on the case of the Commonwealth vs. Barrell 7 Barr, adverse to the Commonwealth vs. Barrell 7 Barr, adverse to the college of the relator of the Court intimated an opinion, founded on the case of the Commonwealth vs. Barrell 7 Barr, adverse to the college of the relator's and the same time, the propriety of presenting in the case, concurred with the said J. Bancroft, the Commonwealth vs. Barrell 7 Barr, adverse to he right of a private relator to prosecute for a Quo Varranto; but no decision was made, the case eing held over for further examination.

After the adjournment of the Court, the Course or the relator having ascertained that the case of he Commonwealth vs. Barrell, had been misconceived by the Court, asked for a further hearing, which the Court acceded to. In the meantime the elator, Murphy, having learned that the business elations between Judge Hegins, the President of the Court, and the Bank were of such a character, taken in connection with certain declarations made by the Judge, as to warrant the conclusion of a legal bias on his part, in favor of the Bank against Murphy, the latter made an affidavit, setting forth facts, which his Counsel deemed sufficient to oust the Judge of jurisdiction in the case.
