FOLLY,

Every woman was made to be a mother; consequently bables are as accessary to their "peace of midd as beath. If you wis to look at melanchly and indepstign, look at an old midd. If you would take a peep at sunshine, look in the face of a consequence."

Now I won't stand that! I'm ah bid maid myself: and I'm neither melancholy nor indigestible! My "Pirce of mind" I'm going to give you, (in a minute!) and I never want to touch a baby except with a pair of tongs! "Young mothers and sunshine!" Worn to fiddle strings before they are twen-

ELMWOOD INSTITUTE FOR BOYS,

REV. J. R. KOOKEN, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

THE Winter session will commence on the 4th of October, and continue sit woulds.

EXPENSES:—For Term of six months, $75.00 Music and French, extra:

The institution is situated on the Ridge Rosd Turnpike, three fourths for a mile from the Borough of Norristown, Montgomery County, Pa. The place is accessible from the city of, Philadelphia at almost every hour of the day, by the Nortistown and Reading Railroads, and is connected by frequent stages, with the surrounding country. The location is one of unsurpassed beauty and healthfulness. It commands a fine view of Norristown, the Schuylkill River, and Valley Forge Range of hills.

THE ACCOMMODATIONS are of the first class. From the extended parronage which has been bemerinations by Fire, on all descriptions of Buildings, Merchandize, and other property, of the usual fair and liberal terms of the Company. Lorses are all the substitutions of the Company. Lorses are all the substitutions of the Company. Lorses are all substitutions are not the substitution of the substit re also two recitation rooms.
THE SLEEPING APARTMENTS, of which many are new, are all of ample size. It has been a poir of importance with the Principal to avoid the pern cious practice, which too eviensively prevails it cious practice, which too eviensively prevails in boarding schools, of crowding pupils into small and close rooms; thereby depriving them of pure airand laying the foundation of future disease. Hence he has deemed it better, though less profitable, to construct the sleeping rooms on a large scale, and to take no greater number of pupils than can be perfectly accommodated.

THE GROUNDS connected with the Institution are spacious, and sufford ample facilities for healthful exercise. Bathing is allowed frequently, but only in company with one or more of the teachers. A large room is devoted exclusively to the use of the pupils, where they may enjoy their anuscements when the weather does not admit of out-door exercise. Not suffecting permitted to lear the grounds without special permission. cise. No student is permitted to lear et he grounds without special permission.

THE TABLE is nat all times provided with an abundance of substantial food. This department is under the charge of a lady, who by long experience, is well qualified to conduct it in the best manner. A motherly care is exercised over the younger pupils, and in cases of sickness the kindsat attention is bestowed.

A CARREUL SUPERVISION is maintained over the morals and general deportment of the School.—The conduct of the pupils is subject to the immediate inspection of the Principal, and they receive, so far as possible, the same care which is bestowed by afteniive parents at home. The attention of the teachers is not confined exclusively to the hours of study; but it is their aim, by associating with the pupils, and taking part in their amusements, to make them conlented and happy.

THE GOVERNMENT of the School is of a very positive character: All profanity, or immoral con-positive character: All profanity, or immoral con-duct, of whatever kind, is strictly prohibited, and is firmly met on the part of the Principal and teachers. No individual of confirmed victous habits can, under any circumstances, be allowed to remain in the Schools Strenuous coercion is however, rarely found neces-sary. Great mildness is observed in the general treatment of the scholar, and it is the design, by gen-tle means, to win confidence, and enlist the heart in favor of what is right.

A CAREFUL REGULARITY in attending the exercises and fulfilling the duties of the School, is ear-nestly enjoined. It is regarded of great importance that no lessons be lost. No exercise is passed over superficially, or without the complete understanding of the pupil. A thorough education, of however lim-ited a character, can never be attained so long as any nk in its formation is wanting. It is therefore urged pon parents that their sons be withdrawn as little upon parents that their sona be withdrawn as little as possible during the session.

THE COURSE OF STUDY embraces all the branches of a liberal English and Classical education.—
The pupil may advance with his studies as far as the time of his stay will permit. Correct Reading, Writing and Spelling, as the indispensable requisites of a good education, are carefolly taught to the less advanced. Any such particular studies may be followed as the parent shall desire; or the pupil may puties the regular course, preparatory for any class in College, or any sphere of active business life.

INSTRUCTION IN GERMAN is given to those who desire it, by the Principal, who is possessed of a vernacular knowledge of the language.

ON THE SABBATH the pupils attend, with the Principal, the German Reformed Church, of which he is Senior Pastor. Those whose parents desire it, are allowed to attend other denominations. A portion of the time is spent in the study of the Holy Scriptures, with a copy of which it is expected that every student will be provided.

De Pupils are received at any age.

THAT IS A BOY I CAN TRUST. I once visited a large public school. At recess, a little fellow came up and spoke to the master, as he turned to go down the platform, the master said, "That is a boy I can trust. He never failed me."
