ROME IN 1853.

" Rome is in a wretched state. Supported by France and Austria, the Governmen is prescriptive and cruel in the extreme, What with fines, imprisonments, expulsions, &c., &c., scarcely a family, high or low, that has not been subjected, within the last two years, to some severe punishment for participation, no matter how alight or indirect, in the revelutionary proceedings of 1848. The authorities have announced their determination to eradicate every thing like republican sentiment, and every day witnesses the exe-

Ho FOR A MAINE LAW!-The State l'emperance Convention is now in session at Harrisburg, and is represented to be largely attended. A despatch from that city says: "The State Central Committee of 13, appointed by the Convention, with power to pointed by the Couvenion, with power to employ competent men to canvass the State thoroughly in behalf of the cause, are making arrangements to attend to that duty.—
Already $10,000 have been raised to carry out the measure, the announcement of which fact to day caused the greatest enthusiasm in the Convention. Cheer after cheer went up, and as this is the greatest effort made, the the friends of temperance are sanguine of the success of the good cause."

. CLINCHER.—Archbishop Hughes having intimated in his late letter to the Freeman's Journal that the Roman Catholic Church is not hostile to the circulation of the Scriptures, Anson G. Phelps, Esq., of New York, came out on Thursday, in a card, offering to pay for the printing of as many copies, in the Roman Catholic, or any other version, as the Archbishop may choose to circulate.

By Steamer Arabia - Dates to 12th. The most important topic is a late insurrection at Milan, Italy. The accounts of it as yet are meagre-having been principally gathered from short telegraphic despatches from Paris immediately before the sailing of

The insurrection broke out on the 6th and five men were killed, but it was immediately suppressed. A subsequent tumor stated it had been revived. A London newspaper correspondent from Paris wrote, d'Great apprehensions are entertained that it is only the commencement of further and more serious events. No doubt Mazzini is at the head of the movement; he has been at Tessino for the last month. There was a good deal of previous agitation to excite the people and prepare them for the movement.-On the 2d a rumor was circulated that Louis Napoleon had been assassinated. It created a tumult, and the Government was obliged to issue placards denying the truth of the A proclamation by Mazzini, inciting the
