SATURDAY, APRIL 16, 1853. Let THE MINERS JOURNAL has a lartier circulation than any other Newspaper published in Northern Pennsylvania. It circulates among the Coal, Iron and hunness men, not only in this and the adjusting counties, but in all our cities, and it also circulates largely among the masses in Schuyllill county, which renders it one of the most columble Advertising mediums in the County. But few papers have so many capitalistis enrolled on its subscription list.

FATAL ACCIDENT.-About 9 o'clock, on Thursday morning last, an accident occurred in the Rock Tunnel of Mr. Samuel Sillyman, at Crow Hollow, near St. Clair. causing the instant death of one man, named Thomas Crosgrove, and seriously injuring another, Christopher Davison-it is feared amoutation of one leg may be necessary. A blast, which they had fired, not going off. they had returned and were in the act of putting the needle into the hole, when the blast was discharged. Both were Englishmen. and each had a wife and family in the old country. This is the most fatal accident, we believe, that has taken place at these works.

of civilization with the iron bond of fashions, a fate notion of geshitty, the lack of sufficient physical exercise, sedentary habits, a life of luxary, and with many too great a degree of exercion at times when the condition of the system requires relaxation,— also, by sudden colds—these are among the prolific cause of the many distressing complaints which fasten themselves upon the female constitution, giving rise to such allments as the following.—Buppression of the Meanes, Orcen Sickaess, Florn Albus, Falling of the Womb, Spinal Weatness, and diseases generally which are peculiar to Fenales.
In recommending his professional services for the treatment and care of the above, the Dr. would briefily remark, that his study and practice have been especially devoted to the treatment of diseases of this type, and from the Havarable results and increasing practice in this branch of his profession, he flattery himself that his efforts have been crowned with success.
