PHILADELPHIA LETTER.^{*}

[FROM OUR REGULAR COBRESPONDENT.]

We have nothing to reneve the unit monousy of the usual routine of affairs this week, excepting some little fluttering in private circles, occasioned by an exhibit of the sayings and doings of Tabitha Tiptongue and her coolederates, by a writer in the Gazette. A son of Mr. Watkin Bynon, aged about 12 years, was drowned in the Little Schuylkill, on Micaday, 11th inst., while bathing. He was em-ployed on the screens in the vicinity, and at dinner time went with some of the other boys to bathe; baying undressed himself, he jumped into the was ter beyond his denth, and sunk to rise no more Philadelfnia, July 21st, 1853.
