OUR POSITION, AND THE WHIG COUNTY TICKET. The position we personally assume in the present Campaign is so well known, and the Maine Law is so generally understood, as to leave but little necessity or room for further explanation: but that none may misconceive our motives or have the chance to wrongfully represent our position; with regard to the present Whig County ticket, we will state candidly and explicitly the ground we occupy and our reasons for the choice. A word, first, about our political orthodoxy. We are a Whig-a devoted admirer and mataunch supporter and advocate of Whig principles, as we have always been and hope ever to remain. We have seen nothing, as yet, to lessen our appreciation of the party, nor anything to cause a change of our long established opinions in favor of its doctrines. It is to us one and the same political faith we adopted twenty years agoits platform is framed essentially of the same materials, and it embraces the same obects, on behalf of the good of the people.-The political tenets which we profess, are not merely exponents of partizan alluncethey are conscientious motives of action fixed and immutable; and hence, whatever changes the party which we have always and faithfully served may undergo, as a body politic, or whatever reverses of fortune; it may suffer, we claim to be a Whig now and a Whig forever. The coming Election is principally of local importance—there is no General Government or any superior State offices to be filled: neither President, Governor nor Congressional Representative to be chosen. Circumstansues between the political parties closer to gether than they have ever been before, and seize the occasion to take a "breathing spell," until; at least, a more favorable aspect of aiopinion, that to secure a Prohibitory Liquor Law is of equal, aye and more importance to the State at large and to Schuylkill Counthe back-ground, to subserve the uncertain purposes of mere partizanship ?

JACOB KLINE has already been tried in the office for which he is again a candidate, and fulfills its duties so well that his friends nave every confidence in running him again. MR. B. BANNAN-Ser :- We have had quite wish to come on, by all means, telegraph for a room. for New York is full and overflowing with humanity, some of the hotels have upwards of a large Maine Law Mass Meeting, this evening, at the Public House of Daniel McVoy; it was largewattended, and has made quite a shaking among thousand souls. The people are still crazy here about gold and mineral lands in general. GUZ the dry bones of Politicians, in our place. The Meeting was organized by calling C. L. B. Dechant to the Chair, and Henry Eckle, Christopher Shropp, [COMMUNICATED FOR THE MINERS' JOURNAL.] D. B. Althouse, dance Lahman, Levi Pinkerto Mr. BANNAN:-I have seen in the Emporaum, lenry Heil, Isaas Harman, John Lanman, Wm. of last week, that back-handed advocate of temperance, a long pleading of the trial of the Com. va. D. G. Yuenging, which contains statements that Fourt, David, Hershlerger, John Deibler, Samuel meeting was addressed by Rev. Mr. Derr, of Lanraster, for about two hours in the English and German languages. We have reason to believe, without a doubt, that we shall have a good majority in favor of the Maine Law candidates in the

1). C. Yuengling, which contains statements that are not facts; for insignce, the writer says that Y. retailed liquer in a shop fitted up with a bar for that purpose, which shop formed a part of his Brewery Establishment. Now, what is the truth and the real facts of that part of the statement? Why it is real facts of that part of the statement? Why it is this; the shop so fitted up was in his private dwelling, on the opposite side of the street, and not on the same lot, or connected with the Brewery, except by a tunnel driven under the street, either to evade the law or make it convenient to stow away, his Ale and Beer in the cellar of his private dwelling; there are other statements that are about as near the truth as this but this is one that every individual can satisfy himself of, by going on the ground and in the beer shop; and if the Prosecuting Attorney had dobe his duty, as he was sworn and fee'd to do, and the Judge had stated to the Jury as he should have done, that they were the

The Colonel, after his signal defeats, it should be supposed, would rious Captains With a list of all the licensed venders of liquor within their respective districts and ordered the arrest of all others. This information his signal defeats, it should be, supposed, would have "laid low" for a while at least. The Colonel was beaten in his own County for Congress, which has a Democratic insjority; and in the late election for Delegates, in his own Ward, his ticket was badly beaten with this active, aid of two Government officers—the Postmaster and Mail Agent—This will not tell well for the popularity of the member of Congress-elect and the Government officers of our Borough at Washington. The Colonel is evidently going down hill, and altacks from that quarter don't amount to much. Alast Colonel, your political course is near its end. was acted upon and the result was the arrest of nearly two thousand at one sweep, last week. The work, however, is not yet finished, and we are awaiting to see wat sentence will be passed, upon them.

Our Temperance people rather like the advance in the price of tetail liquors, and regret that the rise was not greater, hoping thereby to render the price equal to a prohibition. It is hard to tell how
