The Miners' Journal

POTTSVILLE, PA.

SATURDAY, DEC. 24, 1853

☞ THE MINERS' JOURNAL has a larger circulation than any other Newspaper published in Northern Pennsylvania. It circulates among the Coal, Iron and lumber men, not only in this and the adjoining counties, but in all the cities, and it also circulates largely among the farmers in Schuylkill county, which renders it one of the most valuable Advertising mediums in the County. Its terms are low, so many copies are circulated, and its subscription list.

☞ Clergymen and Public School Teachers are supplied with The Miners' Journal at $1 per annum, in advance.

AGENTS FOR MINERS' JOURNAL:

FREDERICK LAUDERBACH, Tamaqua;
THOMPSON A. GODFREY, Tremont;
CHARLES H. HUBBARD, 71 Pine St., New York.

Who are authorized to receive subscriptions, advertisements, &c., for the Miners' Journal, and receipts for the same.

S. D. BALL, agent, advertises some valuable real estate for sale in Minersville.

EVERY variety of Holiday presents in the Jewelry line to be had at R. C. Green's Centre St. Call and examine his splendid assortment.

FOR SPECTACLES, Mathematical Instruments, Spy and Opera glasses &c., &c., call at McAllister and Bro.'s, 13 Chesnut St. Philadelphia.

ESTERLY & SCHUYLER advertise their Wire Coal Screens made by a new process, which they declare vastly superior to the old method of crimping. Their manufactory is well worth a visit. We shall describe it at length next week.

☞ MR. STOUCH, Dancing Master, gave his last party to his pupils on Thursday evening, and publishes a card of thanks to his patrons in another column of the Journal. Mr. STOUCH is a great favorite among the Juveniles, who received his instructions.

☞ THIS IS the last day to select your Christmas presents. If you want beautiful books, or a variety of knick-knacks to choose from, go to Bannan's. His assortment of books, for adults and juveniles, is unusually large, varied and attractive, and in the way of fancy articles, especially suited to Holiday taste, there is no end to them. Call and see.

☞ AN "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" AMONG THE SINGING-BOOKS.—"The Shawm," a Library of Church Music, (as it is termed,) by Messrs. Bradbury and Root, accepted by Messrs Hastings and T. B. Mason, is having a sale, we are informed, quite as wonderful in its way as was that of Mrs. Stowe's far-famed work. Scarcely four months have elapsed since its first publication, and yet the almost incredible number of forty-seven thousand copies have already been printed, while no demand shows no sign of diminution. The sale is vastly greater than any other similar work ever had in the same time.—N. York Evangelist.

The SHAWM can be had at Bannan's.

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.

At a meeting of the WHIG STATE COMMITTEE, held pursuant to public notice, in Philadelphia, on TUESDAY, the 13th of December, in the absence of the Chairman, A. K. CORWYN, was called to the Chair.

The subject of the meeting having been stated, it was, on motion of Col. Edie, of Somerset, unanimously

Resolved, That a Convention of Delegates of the Whig party be held at Harrisburg, on the 15th day of March, 1854, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, Canal Commissioner, and Supreme Court.

ALEX'R CORWYN, Chairman.

HENRY S. EVANS, Secretary.

STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

A Mass Convention of the friends of Prohibition will be held in Harrisburg, on the 26th and 27th of January, 1854, at 10 o'clock, A. M. We hope every city and town, and Temperance organization in the State, may be fully represented. Never have we been called together under such encumstances as the present. Voters of Pennsylvania, come up to the Metropolis, and greet the good men you have elected to enact a law, to suppress the drinking houses and tipping shops. Distinguished men from other States will be with us to assist in our deliberations.

By order of the State Central Committee,

THOS. WATSON, Chairman.

E. W. JACKSON, Corresponding Sec'y.

☞ We print in another part of to-day's paper a good-sized and otherwise convenient Almanac for 1854. It is just the thing for the counting-house.

☞ ON FRIDAY 16th, the Pennsylvania Zinc Co.'s buildings on the Lehigh, opposite Bethlehem, were burned. Loss about $1,000.

☞ WE ARE again under obligations to the gentlemanly conductors of Howard, Earl and Co.'s Express for Papers in advance of the mail, containing the latest intelligence.

☞ CHRISTMAS and New Year's falling on Sundays this year, the Mondays after will generally be observed as the Holidays by the business portion of the community.

☞ WE ARE indebted to Edwood Morris, Esq., C. E., for a copy of a recent Report of the final location and probable cost of the Cincinnati, Hillsborough and Parkersburg Railroad, prepared by him.

☞ A SMOKE-consuming apparatus has been applied to one of the manufactories of Pittsburg, and efforts are making for the general introduction of the nuisance-abating machine throughout the city.

☞ WEDNESDAY last was the shortest day of the year, measuring, according to the Almanac makers, only nine hours and eight minutes. The sun rose at 7, 26 and set at 4, 34 o'clock.

☞ We made a mistake last week in noising the number of subscribers in this County to the Pennsylvania School Journal. There are 150, the highest list in the State, except those of Lancaster County, where the work is published, and of Philadelphia city and county.

☞ CAST IRON CANAL LOCK.—The Sunbury American says.—"The cast iron outlet lock in the Philadelphia and Sunbury Railroad Company's basin, at this place, is nearly completed. It is the only lock of this kind that has ever been built, and is quite a novelty."

☞ BENNETT, of the New York Herald, was mulcted last week in the sum of $10,000, in a suit for libel instituted by Mr. Fry, an opera manager in that city. He is game though—Bennett is. He says he will never shrink from the performance of what he considers duty, under similar circumstances, tho' it does cost $10,000 a shot!

☞ EDUCATION OF IDIOTS.—An advertisement appears in another column on this subject. The instructors of the establishment regard no one hopelessly idiotic, whose graining is begun in time—under twelve years of age; but they do not pretend to vouch for the result, if the matter is deferred to a later period.

☞ OUR HOLIDAY GIFT TO THE PUBLIC.—The present issue of the Journal really closes the current volume, being the Fifty-second number this year, all that subscribers bargain for; but the Almanac man, by some odd freak, having chosen to put Fifty-three Saturdays in Anno Domini, 1853, we are forced to humor him and our Patrons with an extra edition. The public will, therefore, have the goodness to bear in mind that next week's paper will be a Holiday present, and give us due credit, accordingly.

☞ GONE.—Somebody, writing from this place to the West Chester Examiner, over the signature of "Jasper," relates the following sell of a wag, who for the amusement of a crowd was holding a scriptural confab with a colored divine—not hard to guess by these acquainted with his priestly character:

"Why, Charley, you can't even tell who made the monkey."

"Oh, yes I can, massa."

"Well, who made the monkey?"

"Why, massa, the same one made the monkey that made you."

☞ THE new weekly paper in New York, to be edited by Mitchell & Meagher, the Irish exiles, will appear on Saturday, 31st inst.—Without knowing what will be the character of the forthcoming journal, we are satisfied that these gentlemen possess talent enough to get up a first-rate paper.

☞ GEN. JACKSON AND THE LIQUOR LAW.—A writer in the Ledger declares that Gen. Jackson recommended the first Maine Liquor Law and enforced it too, directing all Liquor to be destroyed in the hands of persons engaged in selling it to the Indians in the territory of the United States. This law was passed by Congress during his administration and strictly enforced by his direction. It is now in force in all the Territories, and it not only directs the destruction of all the liquor itself, but it gives the United States Officers authority to destroy the groggeries also wherever they may be found engaged in the traffic. Now, is an Indian any more of a beast when drunk than a white man? And as intemperance and the evils resulting therefrom are quite as great among the white population, are there not stronger inducements both in a political and moral point of view, to protect them in a similar manner from this accursed traffic? Let the opponents of total prohibition answer these questions if they can.

EFFECTS OF BOUGHT LEGISLATION.

THE ERIE DIFFICULTIES.

The difficulties growing out of the Guage Law, which it is rumored citizens of New York bought of the Pennsylvania Legislature, for the sum of $50,000 paid to the Boers and divided among the parties interested, are a-coming quite a very serious aspect, according to the following Telegraphic reports: The Troubles at Erie—Railroad Bridge Destroyed.

ERIE, PA., Dec. 21.

The Railroad Bridge across Harbor Creek was repaired by the Company during yesterday, but has since been again burned down. The United States Marshal is now engaged in serving warrants upon those engaged in this act. The track of the Erie and Cleveland Railroad, built by the Franklin Canal Company without authority, is also threatened with destruction.

SECOND DESPATCH.

ERIE, Dec. 21.

A large body of men, led by the Mayor and High Constable, are engaged in removing the track of the Cleveland Railroad at the street crossings.

The citizens of Fairview are also about demolishing the track at that village. Bells are ringing, cannon firing, &c.

We learn that there were scarcely a dozen members of our Legislature in favor of the Guage Law Bill when it was first introduced; but before the Legislature adjourned, it passed the house by 67 yeas, and the Senate by one or two majority, and the Governor signed the Bill, knowing its character. He now, we learn, expresses sympathy for the people of Erie—and it is reported that his influence will be thrown in favor of its repeal—so will, no doubt, the influence of some of those who voted for the Bill, because it is rumored that a similar sum will be raised to buy its repeal through the Legislature the ensuing Winter. As it is regarded as a Pennsylvania, measure, Pennsylvania Representatives, ought to repeal the law for a less sum than that paid by New York for its passage.

It would be a great blessing if the honest portion of the members of the Legislature had the firmness to expose the guilty parties, and cause an investigation to be made of the Bribery that exists among members and officers of Government. One or two such examples would be of vast service to the people of the State—it would open their eyes and make them more cautious in the selection of their representatives, hereafter.

A gentleman from Erie informed us a few days since, that the population was unanimous, with the exception perhaps of a dozen interested parties, in sustaining the Mayor and Police in the defence of what they firmly believe to be their rights.

ADVANTAGES OF ADVERTISING.

The New York Tribune has a most sensible article on the benefits to be derived from a liberal system of advertising. We copy the article with pleasure, for its pure orthodoxy. The thousands of persons who have made the press the medium of their wants, or supplied them, persons in want of a situation as clerk or servant, an apprentice, a journeyman, boarders wanted, or for a boarding house, houses to let or to hire, goods to sell, &c., will vouch for the truth of the subjoined:

If you want a house, there is no need of running all over the city, incommoding hundreds of families by a long list of questions, or by overrunning their rooms. If you want a house, write a brief description of such a one as you would like, and advertise it.—You will not wait long before the house will come to you, and thus you will save time, strength, and annoyance to yourself and others.

If you have a house to let, a bill at the door may be seen by a hundred persons in a day; an advertisement in the papers will be seen in the same period by thousands.—Therefore advertise; for nine out of ten who want houses search the newspapers first.

If you want a servant, advertise just as you would for a house, stating what qualifications you require, &c. Then, instead of hunting through the town, and getting a poor stick at last, you may sit still and select such from those who will call upon you the very one you wanted.

If you want a place as servant, apprentice, or journeyman, don't wander day after day from house to house and shop to shop; but for the mere trifle charged for such notices, tell the whole world what you can do and where you can be found. Your days of idleness will soon be numbered. Men don't go about hunting up laborers; they look in the papers, and save themselves the time and trouble of travel.

If you want board, you need not stop at a hundred doors to be told that they are full, or climb uncounted stairs to find that the rooms don't suit. Advertize; tell what rooms and prices and location you desire, and the next day open your answers, and take choice of a dozen first-rate places.

Those who want boarders, scarcely need advice; they have long since ceased to depend upon friendly recommendations and door-plates; but they might improve in their notices by more particular explanation of their accommodations, prices, &c.

If you wish to sell more goods this year than you ever did before, advertise more.—The unparallelled success of those merchants and traders who have kept their names and their goods before the people, is a lesson not to be disregarded by any one who depends upon a public patronage for a living. The best customers are those who find out what they want before they leave home, and these are the ones who invariably look in the newspaper to see where the article is to be found.

If you want a steamboat or a poodle dog, a thousand laborers or an errand boy; if you want anything whatever that you did not know just where to find, or do not choose to run after, advertise your wants; and ninety-nine times in a hundred you will be gladly served at your own door for cheaper and better than by any other known process.

The newspaper is the established medium of exchange between mind and mind in regard to nearly all the wants of life and its usefulness is extending among all classes with surprising rapidity. Everybody reads the newspaper, from the millionaire over his coffee, to the African who has just polished his harbor's boots—and no part of the paper gives so fresh, varied and comprehensive pictures of the city and the age, as the advertisements.

☞ THE INCOMING YEAR.—We take the following paragraph from the Victoria (Texas) Advocate. It may interest some of our readers:

"The following facts, in relation to the year of our Lord 1854, were pointed out by a clerical friend of ours. The year begins and ends on Sabbath—there are five months in the year that contain five Sabbaths; and there are fifty-three Sabbaths in the year.—Such a coincidence, he believes, will not occur again for twenty eight years.

☞ BREADSTUFFS IN EUROPE.—Speaking of the decline in Breadstuffs in the English markets, advised by the last advices to the 3d inst., the New York Post says: When the heavy shipments of wheat and flour which were made from this port arrive out, we may expect to hear of a further decline in the Liverpool and London markets; supplies having recently been generally large from all foreign ports. Two millions of bushels of wheat alone were shipped in all November from this port, besides much from other ports, and great quantities of flour. Prices having fallen unexpectedly in Great Britain during November, are more likely to fall in December, and the advices expected all this and next month are of lower markets there.

☞ IF ALL the freight cars upon the New York Central Railroad were arranged in one train, that train would be twenty-six miles long.

THE FAR-FAMED MEDICINE,

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

THESE PILLS being composed entirely of medicinal herbs, are a most harmless nature, while their extraordinary virtues they possess have rendered them universally popular in nearly every part of the world. The immense success they have met with throughout the State is most extraordinary, owing, it is presumed, to their wonderful efficacy in the cure of those complaints which other establishments in Sunbury, Pottsville and Philadelphia have failed to relieve. Persons who persevere in using them in accordance with the directions, seldom fail in being restored to health.

WEAKNESS and DEBILITY—RESTORATION TO HEALTH OF A GENTLEMAN, AGED 45, WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR.

Copy of a Letter from the Rev. Charles S. Arthur, United Nations, St. Philip's near High, Somerset, Aug. 13th, August, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—A Mr. Joseph Patton, formerly a resident of this place, but now in the State of Ohio, has been for many years gradually wasting away by a complication of nervous disorders and want of appetite, which at times amounted to Dyspepsia. He has consulted various medical men in Bath, Wellington and Taunton, and has used your Pills and Ointment, and was restored to health by the use of them. He is now living in Cincinnati, and is quite well. He at last used your Pills and Ointment for a bad leg, which had been of many years standing, and which the surgeons of Taunton Infirmary had declared incurable, and which was perfectly healed by the use of your Pills.

CHARLES S. ARTHUR, Minister.

A PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER, OF MANY YEARS' DURATION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Garnish, Chemist, Weyhill, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you of the benefit I have derived from the use of your Pills and Ointment. I had been afflicted with a diseased liver for many years, and had tried many of the advertised medicines of the day, but without any benefit, until I was induced to purchase a box of your Pills, which, after taking a few doses, relieved me, and by persevering in their use for a short time, I was perfectly restored to health, and have since enjoyed better health than I have done for many years. This is twelve months since I was cured, and I have had no return of the complaint. I can therefore, with confidence, recommend them to all who are afflicted with a diseased liver, as I am sure they will prove beneficial.

Sold by the Proprietor, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar, London), and by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, at the following prices: 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., 11s., 22s., and 33s. each Box or Pot.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

☞ Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.
